PREFACE.

THE publisher, in presenting this "HISTORY OF THE EBY FAMILY" to the numerous descendants of our old ancestors THEODORUS EBY, PETER EBY and NICHOLAS EBY, has endeavored to merit the approval of all, by presenting a work that will be found interesting to all branches of the EBY Family.

It will be found to contain more information in regard to their persecution in Europe, their emigration to America, etc., than any other publication heretofore placed in the hands of the reader.

Among the contents will be found a short biographical history of the more prominent members of the family.

A work of this kind necessarily involves a great amount of expense and labor, and the publisher has spared neither, but has made every effort to make it as interesting and as perfect as could possibly be done at so late a date.

Thanking those who have so kindly given me information and their support in this work, I remain

Respectfully Yours,

EZRA E. EBY.

BERLIN, ONT., Sept. 14, 1889.

THE EBY FAMILY.

IN this brief work, "HISTORY OF THE EBY FAMILY," no attempt is made to give a detailed history of the whole Family, but a mere outline is given of their origin, their primitive faith, their emigration from Italy to Switzerland, thence to the "Palatinate" or Pfaltz, thence to Pennsylvania, United States, and later on their forming settlements in different parts of other States and the Dominion of Canada.

The Ebys belong to the Celts, an ancient race of people of Asiatic origin, who formerly inhabited southern, central and western Europe. During the early ages they lived in the northern part of Italy, where they were brought from heathendom to the worshipping of the true and living God through the labors of the Vaudois (Waldenses), with whom they came in contact at a very early date. They soon became strict adherents of the Vaudois faith. While the Church of Rome was gaining power and extending her influence over western and northern Europe, these Vaudois, in their mountainous homes, were for some time left unmolested. From the eighth to the eleventh centuries these primitive worshipping and God-fearing people (Vaudois) became very numerous, and were becoming quite a power to resist the influence of the Church of Rome. In order to gain full sway over civilized Europe, the Church of Rome adopted means whereby these Vaudois were to be either subdued or expelled from their homes. But these people (Vaudois) were not so easily subdued or brought under the sway of Rome. The ministry, known as the Inquisitors, were first sent out to bring these people over from their faith to that of the Roman Catholic. This was as early as 1308. The Vaudois would not yield to the Inquisitors, and the result was, that in 1453 the whole Valley of Luzerna and all the country of North Italy and Savoy were laid under an interdict. Between the years 1400 and 1500 the Vaudois were most bitterly persecuted by their enemies, for not renouncing their primitive faith. History tells us that in 1487 Innocent XIII. fulminated against these Vaudois a Bill of Extermination. In 1560 the persecutions became so fierce, that quite a number fled from their homes and went to the northern parts of Switzerland, where they led a wandering life for some time. They finally settled in Cantons Bern, Luzerne, Zurich and Schwyz. Among those Vaudois who thus settled in these Cantons we find the name

EBY, then spelled EBEE. Here they led a God-fearing life, and were rigid in the keeping of their primitive faith and forms of worship.

During the Reformation they were subjected to the same persecutions as other Protestants in northern Europe. After the founding of the Mennonite Church in A. D. 1537 by one of the early Reformers named Menno Simon, a native of Holland, these Swiss Vaudois, or Swiss Protestants, as they were then called, united with the Menno Simon party, now known as Mennonites. Among the parties who thus joined the Mennonites we find the names of Herr, Graaf, Mylin, Shank, Witmer, Landis, Eby and others. Some of these names are of Teutonic origin, which proves that the Vaudois had accessions from that source after their arrival in Switzerland.

As early as 1683 we find in some old records that JACOB EBY was ordained a Bishop of the Mennonite Church in Canton Zurich. The State party again getting the ruling power into their hands, laid the Mennonites open to persecution, and not wishing to resist the authority of State, a number of these Mennonites left Switzerland and went to the "Palatinate" or Pfaltz, an old German division, now discarded on maps. The chief towns in which they settled were Manheim, Zweibruecken and Heidelberg. Here they resided for but a few years, when they were again troubled by their enemies for not conforming to the laws and church of the State. The laws of the State were not so much violated by these parties, only they would not take up arms, nor would they speak in favor of war, but took a decided stand against all manner of war, hence their frequent abuses by the State parties.

When William Penn, by his agents, offered free homes to persons of all religious denominations, quite a number of the Mennonites from Switzerland, Pfaltz and Holland, moved to America and settled in Pennsylvania. They had this assurance, that if once in Pennsylvania they could worship God according to the teachings of the Bible and the dictates of their own consciences, which they considered more than a recompense compared with their losses and privations in forsaking their native land.

Among the numerous parties thus coming to America were our Ancestors Theodorus Eby (son of Bishop JACOB EBY, ordained in 1683*), who came in 1715, Peter Eby, nephew of THEODORUS, who came in 1720, and Nicholas Eby, a descendant of the same family, who came more than a century thereafter.

We shall take up, first, the descendants of THEODORUS, second, those of PETER and third, those of NICHOLAS.

THEODORUS EBY[1]
AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Theodorus Eby[1], son of Bishop Jacob Eby, was born in Canton, Zurich, Switzerland, on the 25th April, 1663.* He, being a strict Mennonite in faith, left his native country about the year 1704 on account of the religious persecutions. From 1704 till 1715 he resided in the "Palatinate" or Pfaltz, Germany. Finding persecutions here equally severe as in the country just left, he, in company with other co-religionists, left for Philadelphia in the Spring of 1715. Some time in August of the same year he settled on what is now called Mill Creek, at a place now known as ROLAND'S MILL, situated south of New Holland and near the line of Earl and Leacock Townships, in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.† Here he resided until his death and enjoyed the privileges and freedom of religion for which he had to suffer persecutions and trials in Europe. Some time during September, 1737, he died. His end was peace.*

Theodorus' family consisted of five sons and one daughter. Their names were Peter[2], Hannes[2], Jacob[2], Christian[2] and David[2], and the daughter's name was Elizabeth[2]; she was married to a man named Hannes Baehr.* These sons were all skilled in the various mechanical arts, so that with their assistance the old ancestor THEODORUS built a mill and erected such other buildings as were needed, without employing persons outside of the family, except for the purpose of burning charcoal to supply the smith forge, which process they themselves did not sufficiently understand.†

1. PETER EBY[2], the eldest son, left four sons, Peter[3], John[3], Jacob[3] and Christian[3] (see pages 100–113 and 130–131).

2. HANNES EBY[2] left four daughters. No information received in regard to their descendants.*

3. JACOB EBY[2] left two sons, Peter[3] and Christian[3] (see pages 113–130.

4. CHRISTIAN EBY[2] had a family of ten children (see pages 6, 57, 60, 83 and 99).

5. DAVID EBY[2], the youngest son of Theodorus Eby[1], had a family of five children (see pages 49–56.)

For PETER EBY[2], nephew of Teeodorus Eby[1] (see pages 132–134) and for NICHOLAS EBY[5] (see pages 134–136.)

Christian Eby[2] and his Descendants.

The fourth son of of THEODORUS EBY[1], named CHRISTIAN EBY[2], was born in Switzerland, February 12, 1698. He was married to ELIZABETH MAVER, a member of one of the families that immigrated with Theodorus[1]. CHRISTIAN[2] and his wife settled on Hammer Creek, in Elizabeth Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, about three miles north of Lititz. Here he died about the 15th day of September, 1756, and his wife died on the 12th day of December, 1787. They had a family of ten children. Their names, together with dates of birth, death, etc., are as follows:

Christian Eby[3] and his Descendants.

The oldest son Christian Eby[3], who married Catherine Bricker, retained the old homestead on Hammer Creek. He greatly improved the dwelling house erected by his father in 1754. The dressed sandstone in front wall bears date 1754 and names of Christian Eby and his wife ELIZABETH. †The house and barn on the old homestead were in their time considered stately buildings. The house had originally a large chimney in the centre with fire place in nearly every room on first and second story; it had an arched cellar underneath, walnut and oaken panneled partitions, with some of the window sashes hung on cords with lead weights. The barn was built 99 feet long (only that long so as not to offend a neighbor who shortly before had built a barn of the boasted length of 100 feet). The walls of both, particularly so of the house, are good and solid to this day. Christian[3] was a large, well proportioned and athletic man, retaining unusual health and vigor of both body and mind up to the time of his death. He was an Elder in the Mennonite Church and wore a long beard, which in his later years had turned white. Regular stated Mennonite meetings were held at his house, until a building for that purpose was erected in his neighborhood. He lived during the Revolutionary War and foraging parties took off some of his horses and cattle, carrying with them large quantities of flour and grain from his mill. On one occasion his wife's pewter dishes and spoons and an oven full of newly baked bread and pies shared the same fate. During the winter in which the American Army was encamped at Valley Forge a number of disabled soldiers were quartered in the old Lutheran Church near Brickerville, and were supplied weekly with milk and other necessaries of life from his and neighboring farms.

As already stated, he died on the 14th day of September in the year 1807, and lies buried in the family grave yard on top of the hill opposite the buildings of the said place. His wife Catherine, who is said to have been an amiable and greatly esteemed person, survived him several years. They had a family of twelve children, as follows:

Elizabeth Eby4 and her Descendants.

ELIZABETH EBY4, the eldest of the above family, was married to Joseph Bucher. They resided one and one-half miles north of Lititz, Lancaster County, where they possessed a farm of 400 acres. They both lie buried in Bomberger's Burial Ground, which is near said farm. After their decease the large farm was purchased by their son Jonas, who disposed two parts of it to his two brothers-in-law, Joseph Brubacher and Daniel Brubacher. The part of the farm retained by Jonas Bucher is now owned by his son Joseph, who has rented it to his son Jacob.

The family of Elizabeth Eby4 and her husband Joseph Bucher, eight children in all, is as follows:

1. ANNA BUCHER5, married to Abraham Hostetter, had a family of two children, namely, Ahraham6 and David6.

2. JONAS BUCHER6, married to Susan Wittwer, had a family of eight children, viz., Elizabeth6 married to Jacob Kreider, after his death to Christian Eby. Mary6 married to Jacob Erb. Fannie6 married to Henry Zug. Annie6, married to Henry Reist. Leah6, married to Seth Eby. Joseph6, married to Annie Shenk, after her decease to Catherine Risser. 3. ELIZABETH BUCHER5, married to Daniel Brubacher, had a family of four children, namely, Susan6 married to Samuel Gsell. Elizabeth6 maried to Peter Reist. John6 married to Molly Bomberger, and Fannie6, married to Augustus Sturgis.

4. MARY BUCHER5, married to Joseph Brubacher had a family of ten children as follows: namely, Catherine6 married to John Bomberger, Joseph6 married to Susan Rudy, Barbara6 married to Christian B. Snyder, Mary6 married to Christian E. Bomberger, David6 (Deacon in the Mennonite Church) married to Lizzie Hess, Anna6 married to Jacob Sherk, Elizabeth6 married to Levi Weaver, Levi B.6 married to Elizabeth Schaeffer, Jonas6 married to Leah Keller and John6 married to —— Weidler.

5. SUSAN BUCHER5, married to Henry Becker, had a family of nine children, namely, John6, Elias6, Henry6, Levi6, Israel6, Nancy6, Catherine6, Sarah6 and Eliza6. Not reported to the writer to whom they were married.

6. BARBARA BUCHER5, married to Christian Weis, had a family of five children namely, Andrew6, Henry6, Samuel6, Christian6 and Eliza6.

7. VERONICA BUCHER5, married to George Huber, had a family of three children namely, John6, Christian6 and Matilda6 who was married to John N. Eby6.

8. CATHERINE BUCHER5, married to Samuel Lehman, had a family of ten children namely, Henry6, Catherine6 married to Samuel Longenecker, Sarah6 married to David Beck, Maria6, Sem6, Fannie6 married to Henry C. Gingerich, Elizabeth6, Samuel6, Jonas6 and Susan6. The last four died in infancy.

Christian B. Eby4 and his Descendants.

CHRISTIAN B. EBY4, the second child of Christian Eby3, was married to Veronica Hershey, daughter of Christian and Anna Hershey, on the 2nd day of December, 1788. She was born November 19, 1766 and died February 4, 1826. They received the old homestead on Hammar Creek, where they lived and died, and both lie buried in the family grave yard, near their forefathers. They had a family of nine children, as follows:

Record of the Family of Bishop Peter Eby4.

Peter Eby4, the second son of Christian B. Eby3 and his wife Catharine Bricker was born on the old homestead on the 14th day of October, 1765. His younger days were spent on his father's farm and in the mills.

In July 1788 he was married to Margarette Hess, who was born October 7, 1764, and died February 14, 1846.

Soon after marriage they moved to Salisbury Township, Lancaster County, about one mile west of the Gap, on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, at a place called Eby's Curve. This was in 1791. Here he followed farming very diligently until 1800, when he was ordained minister of the Mennonite body. Soon after he was ordained Bishop. Up to 1814 he preached in private houses, then a school-house was erected, and afterwards a meeting-house for that special purpose.

This member of the family deserves more than a passing notice.* His fame as a preacher was widely known, and served to fill the houses to their utmost capacity wherever it was known that he was to officiate. The ministers of the Mennonite Church are not educated for the pulpit, nor have they adopted the ministry as a profession. Their ministers are chosen by lot, whenever a position is to be filled, from a small number of the considered most worthy. Several ministers usually reside convenient to a particular meeting-house, where they are expected to officiate upon all ordinary occasions. On communion days and other special occasions, a Bishop is required to be present. The Bishops have also certain districts allotted to each, and the privilege of presiding amongst them is generally accorded to the senior in office, or the most eminent in abilities. This position Peter held for many years, up to the time of his death, and his authority also extended over the Church in Canada, until he was succeeded by his younger brother Benjamin.

To form some idea of his power as an orator, it is necessary to state that the principal sermon in the Mennonite Churches was always prefaced by an introductory discourse by one of the younger ministers present; and that on communion day the subject invariably used to be Bible history from Adam down bringing out the prominent events and prophecies pointing to the new dispensation. The introductory sermon generally brought it down to the time of Noah, Abraham or Moses, when it would be taken up by the Bishop and continued to the birth of Christ, His ministry on earth and His final suffering and death. Old as the story had become, the audience never tired listening to it from the eloquent lips of Peter. When he slowly arose, all noise subsided into an almost painful expectation; then he would brake the silence with a kind and fatherly greeting to his hearers, and glide fervently into the course marked out for himself, proceeding step by step, describing, explaining, illustrating and sustaining his points as he went along, with copious quotations from the Scriptures, for all of which he drew upon his extraordinary memory. He would gradually warm up in his theme, and when under full sway, his discourse moved along like a deep stream rolling oceanward, without a break or ripple, grand, majestic and irresistible. His powers, however, were brought out more fully when he came to portray the acts and sufferings of his Master during His last few days on earth: The scene in Gethsemane, the sleeping disciples, the noise and tumult breaking upon the stillness of the night when the armed men came to take him, the doings before the Jewish and Roman tribunals, the embarrassment of Pontius Pilate and his fruitless device to save Jesus, the message sent him by his wife, his last resort, when he permitted the Jews to choose between Jesus and Barabbas, and the cries of the infuriated multitude that pronounced his condemnation; then the sorrowful train moving up to Calvary, the preparation to carry the fearful sentence into execution, and lastly the finishing act in the sublime drama, the Saviour of Man nailed between Heaven and earth, with parched lips, in the agonies of death, crying to the Father to forgive; the darkening of the heavens, the quaking of the earth and the elements bear witness, in thunders and lightnings, to the divinity of Him that was suffering.

All this he would portray in a manner so vivid that the speaker would be forgotten in the subject. Then his voice, suppressed by emotion, and sinking into silence, would allow the attention of his hearers to return to the speaker; he would stand before them, tears streaming down his cheeks, his countenance glowing, and with his hands raised directed the penitent sinner, as it were, to the foot of a visible cross. His preaching was altogether extemporaneous and its effect upon an audience great; and yet he was not a sensational preacher; he addressed the judgement as well as the feelings, and his discourses abounded in arguments and reasonings that were listened to with admiration by the most polemical or logical. So much was this the case that it frequently happened that strangers, hearing him for the first time, although otherwise informed, would not be convinced that he was not a person regularly educated and trained for the ministry. His personal appearance also was greatly in his favor, being somewhat above medium height, well proportioned and fleshy, with a high, square, even forehead, a finely formed face, that had it not indicated quite as much force, might have been classic. His deportment was easy, grave and dignified. An acquaintance of his who had heard some of the most noted orators of the State and Nation, in and out of the pulpit, gave it as his opinion, that for none of them, it seemed, had nature done so much towards making the Orator as for this grand old servant of the Lord and his church.

In the councils over which he presided as Bishop his voice was equally potent. His clear intellect enabled him to probe difficulties to the bottom, and his impartial decisions, pronounced without fear or favor, were acknowledged to be just and rarely appealed from.

He died on the 6th of April, 1843, in the 78th year of his age. His family consisted of nine children who arrived to adult age. The names of them are as follows:

Record of the Family of John Eby4.

John Eby4 (generally called "Hannes") was the third son of Christian Eby3 and his wife Catharine Bricker. He was born on the 23rd day of October, 1767, on the old home place on Hammar Creek, then in Warwick, now in Elisabeth Township, Lancaster County. He lived at the mill his father built for him in 1790, on the west side of the Creek. He died May 25th 1845, and is buried in the family grave yard on the old home place (where he was born), on the east side of the Creek.

The farm he possessed is now separated from the mill property, and Henry E. Brubacher, a son of Maria Eby, and nephew of John Eby, owns the most of the land, including the mansion house and farm buildings.

The old mill, devised to his son Elias, which was destroyed by fire in Elias' time and rebuilt by him in 1849, is now owned, together with the water power and some of the land adjoining, by a Mr. Snavely, who is not related to the family.

John ("Hannes") Eby4 was married July 1, 1794, to Maria Wittwer, who survived him 11 years. She was born August 25, 1773, died August 29, 1856. She was raised near the Blue Ball in Earl Township, Lancaster County. In person John Eby was a man of about 5 feet 8 inches in height, weighing between 140 and 150 pounds. He had dark hair, dark brown eyes, wearing his hair cut short across the upper part of his forehead and long at the sides and back. His features were fine, regular and prepossessing, his nose slightly aquiline, and in his general appearance he and his youngest brother Benjamin resembled each other very much. He had on his lower lip a dark mole, a mark which most of the older members of the Eby family had—and quite a number of the younger members have it also. In deportment he was modest, grave and dignified, neither sought to push himself forward, nor yet shrinking in the presence of any one. Under his grave demeanor he concealed a keen sense of the ludicrous, but never betrayed it in any boisterous or unseemly outburts of laughter; yet the writer often saw his sides shaking with suppressed emotions. He never was what could be called very strong, physically, but active, a keen sportsman with the gun in his younger days, a patient fisherman up to his old age.

He was not a rapid speaker, but his words were well chosen, thoughtful and kindly spoken, so that they drew the attention and commanded the respect of his hearers. It was he who decided the fate of the Pennsylvania Colony, formed in Waterloo County, Ontario, Canada. As near as it can be related it was as follows: A number of Mennonites had purchased a large tract of forest land in what is now called Waterloo Township in Waterloo County, Ontario, Canada, paid for it, and were beginning to form settlements thereon; but soon after the first settlers' arrival, they, to their great surprise and astonishment, discovered that their land was under a mortgage which embraced the whole township. The only way for them was to pay the mortgage, but the difficulty was, where were the means to be derived from? A committee was appointed and these were requested to go to Franklin County Pennsylvania, to their friends and relatives, and make an effort to raise the required amount to lift the mortgage. They failed in their undertaking, and all but two of the committee returned home. The two remaining members went to Lancaster County, and after making known their errand, a conference of their friends and co-religionists (Mennonites) was called to give them a hearing. Among those present at the conference were John Eby, and his two brothers-in-law, Jacob Wissler and Jacob Brubacher. After the matter had been fully discussed, the idea of investing their money in the then far off lands under the British Sovereignty, did not commend itself very favorably to the brethren and others present. The conference was just about to decide against it, when old "Hannes" Eby arose and advanced a new idea, namely, that they ought not to look upon the matter as a mere speculation to enrich themselves, which in all likelihood it would not do, but rather as their christian duty, to assist, if possible, their brethren in distress; that if it yielded them no profit in money, it would be doing their duty, an act that the Lord might in His own good time perhaps bless in a way neither of them thought of. The spring following this conference, a delegate was sent to Canada with authority to buy the land and extinguish the mortgage thereon. The land was surveyed and laid out in lots of 448 acres each and a draft of the township (now Waterloo) showing the lots and numbers of same was taken to Pennsylvania, and each purchaser selected his lot. A number of those lots were then purchased by the Ebys, Wisslers, Brubachers and others, and most of them are now possessed by descendants of those early purchasers. If the eyes of the members and others who had assembled at that conference could now behold the many happy homes in the township of Waterloo; could they see the many stately farm buildings and the numerous villages and towns that have sprung up since then, they would think that the words of old "Hannes" Eby have indeed become true, and that the kind and good Lord has blessed their act done on that "ever-to-be-remembered" day even better and more abundantly than they could foresee, or had reason to expect.

John Eby4 acquired habits of in-door life and spent much of his younger days in reading. He became very fond of study and a lover of books; even his old days were much taken up in reading. He had quite a library of both German and English books:—Works on religion, history, mechanics (such as pertain to the construction of mill-machinery), medicine, and books on other subjects, and he also was a regular reader of both German and English newspapers. In his day he took an active part in the improvement and development of the country, was a director in the Turnpike Company, laid out a number of public roads to open communication between the town of Manheim and the Ephrata Turnpike, and one from his place to Brickerville, and built one of the first school-houses in the neighborhood, on his land, at his own private expense, where the youth of the neighborhood were educated by teachers procured by him.*

He left a family of eight children, viz:

Record of the Family of Anna Eby[4] (Wissler).

Anna Eby[4], the fourth daughter and the eighth member of Christian Eby[3] and his wife Catharine Bricker's family, was born on the 9th day of September, A. D., 1777, and died on the 25th day of April, 1829. On the 25th day of March, 1800, she was married to Jacob Wissler, who was born on the old "Wissler homestead" on Middle Creek, Clay Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He lived and died on the old homestead. In his old age he built a one-story brick-house for himself and his daughter Catharine. This building adjoined the house-yard of the old homestead. Both he and his wife Anna lie buried at Hammar Creek Mennonite Meeting-House, nearly two miles west of their home. Jacob Wissler was born November 12, 1776, and died April 27, 1853.

They had a family of ten children, as follows:

George Eby[4].

George Eby[4], the ninth member of the family of Christian Eby[3] and his wife Catharine Bricker, was born on the 30th day of September, 1779. He died in 1793 when nearly 14 years of age.

Maria Eby[4].

Maria Eby[4], the tenth member of the family of Christian Eby[3] and his wife Catharine Bricker, was born on the 4th day of November, 1781. She died on the 9th day of April, 1783, aged 1 year, 5 months and 5 days.

Bishop Benjamin Eby's First Residence in Canada.—Built in 1806-7.

Bishop Benjamin Eby[4].

Benjamin Eby$_4$, the sixth son and eleventh member of the family (Christian Eby[3] and his wife Catharine Bricker, was born on the old hom stead on Hammar Creek, in Warwick Township, Lancaster County, Pen sylvania, on the 2nd day of May, 1785.

Benjamin spent his boyhood days on the farm, and in his father cooper-shop making barrels for the mills. He received a fair commo school education, and during the long winter evenings he continued h studies. He had free access to his father's books, as well as to his broth John's library. He was not very strong and it used to be the commo saying among the neighbors: "Aus 'em Bennie gebts ka Bauer, er mus Schulmaster werre!"—"Bennie will never make a farmer, he must becom a school-teacher."

On the 21st of May, 1804, he was baptized in the Conestogo Menn nite Meeting-House, by Bishop Christian Burkholder, and on the sam day he was admitted as a member of that body.

In 1806 he came to Canada for the first time. On the 24th May (the same year he came to what is now Berlin. Here he remained wit his cousin George Eby, who then resided on the place now known as th Jacob Y. Shantz farm. He purchased his land (the farm now possesse by Mr. Moses Betzner), had a small clearing of about two acres mad during August, then made preparations for the erection of a log-hous which was put up and completed during the following winter. (See cu of house.) On the 4th of November he, in company with others, set ou for home. The mode of travelling in those days was on horse-back.

On the 25th day of February, 1807, he was married to Mary Br bacher, daughter of Jacob and Susannah (Erb) Brubacher.

On the 21st day of June, 1807, the following party arrived at Georg Eby's, Berlin, viz.: Benjamin Eby and wife, Joseph Schneider and wif David Eby, Daniel Eby, John Eckert, Frederick Vogt, Peter Erb an wife, Daniel Erb, Samuel Eby and a few others. On the 30th day of th same month he took possession of his farm.

On the 27th day of November, 1809, he was ordained as a minist in the Mennonite Church, and on the 11th day of October, 1812, he wa ordained as a Bishop in that body. The following is

A SHORT BIOGRAPHY OF THE VENERABLE OLD BISHOP,

Written by one of his admirers who remembers mostly all the incdents (Waterloo County, especially those pertaining to the Mennonite body, since the year 1808:

"I do, and must ever acknowledge with thankfulness to our Lor that it was a great blessing and a merciful disposal of His providence towards me, that I was a member of a denomination placed under the guardianship of so excellent a pastor as the late Benjamin Eby. Upon the first beginning of his preaching, which was on the last Sunday in November, 1809, he made a noble impression upon all his hearers, and they were convinced that in him was stored more than ordinary ability. His very first sermon proved that he was gifted with reason and judgment, qualities which combine to make a successful minister.

"He was a person of unblemished character and conversation, free from intemperance, covetousness or any other vice whatsoever. He was naturally of a sweet disposition, friendly and obliging, and always ready to serve his friends in any way that he could, by his interest and authority, whenever they applied to him; and this he always did freely and generously, without having any indirect designs by which to serve himself or to make himself popular. He was very affable and conversable, not sour, sullen, proud or haughty, not addicted to anything like moroseness, but open and free, gentle and easy, pleasant and amiable even to those who were much his inferiors, and especially to those with whom he was acquainted as being honest and good. His common and familiar discourse was witty and facetious, but very inoffensive, not at all biting or disobliging. Nothing that was vain or trifling, nothing calumniatory or that reflected on others' reputation, whether absent or present, ever passed from his lips; and even in his censures of those who differed with him in religious views he was fair and candid. His more grave discourses were very weighty. He spoke apothegms, was very serious in giving good counsel, in resolving doubts or in recommending religion and virtue. He was wise and prudent in his whole deportment, speaking and acting all things with great evenness and steadiness, not with blustering or temerity, or so as to give just offense to any. He understood human nature well, and knew the effect upon human beings of being slighted or disrespected, hence he was obliging to all so far as it was possible. His wisdom was so tempered with uprightness and sincerity, that no one ever had any occasion to accuse him of being in the least crafty or designing. He was greatly esteemed for his integrity. He was highly esteemed by persons of all ranks and denominations, so much so that all very much desired and valued his company and wholesome conversation.

"I could easily add many things more in behalf of this great and good man, but I shall add but a few; first, in regard to his preaching: He was deservedly considered one of the best, if not rather the very best, preacher of his age, among the Mennonites. His sermons were full of good sense, judicious, close and very intelligible; his language was masculine but not bombastic; his ideas for the most part were very clear, lying parallel with the understanding of attentive hearers. All listened to his preaching with delight. Some called him a rational, or moderate, preacher, which indeed he was in the best sense. He understood human nature, natural divinity and true morality very well, and hence he could speak into the hearts and consciences of men not debauched in such a manner as to move them to give assent and consent to what he spoke, as being agreeable and also natural, as I may say, to the common reason and faculties of mankind. His sermons did not consist of mere phrases or forms of words suited to any particular sect or party, or that had little real matter in them. He was a practical preacher. His discourses generally aimed either to excite in man an awful sense of God and to enkindle devotion towards Him, or to stir up to a holy, religious and virtuous conversation, which certainly is the great end of the Christian religion. Whenever it was known that Ben Eby (as he was generally called) was to preach, the result was a crowded house of eager listeners. The audience generally sat with the greatest attention and even waited for the discourse that was hanging on his lips, and during the delivery of which there was scarcely a wandering eye among the large audience; and when his sermon was ended, the people departed with satisfied minds, glad hearts and cheerful countenances. He had a great dexterity in expounding Scripture by Scripture, for, like Apollos of old, he was 'a man mighty in the Scriptures.' The Bible was his treasury, from whence he fetched not only the matter and strength of his sermons, but even his manner of convincing and persuading the thoughts of men to lead God-fearing and religious lives, that when called upon to leave this house of clay they may be ready to enter mansions above. The method of his sermons was generally apt and easy, and very well fitted both to the understanding and memories of intelligent hearers; and in handling the several heads into which he divided his subject, his endeavor was to make all things clear and to bring truth into open light. His arguments of persuasion were strong and nervous, and tended to gain the affections by the understanding; and those who heard him with attention must either have been persuaded to become good, or else they must have done violence to their best faculties and acted contrary to their own reason, so that if under God his word did not save them, yet it was sure to judge them and leave them without excuse. I am convinced that, by God's blessing resting upon his labors, he was an instrument in doing more good in his position and generation than any one of his co-laborers. Thus I might go on describing this good old man, but let this suffice.

"I do not consider this grand old man to have been absolutely perfect or wholly devoid of faults and blemishes; nor did he ever think so himself, for he had the virtue of embellishing and gracing all his other virtues and perfections by being very humble in his whole deportment. He had hothing of pride, so far as ever appeared to me in my strictest observation of him. He did not magnify or boast of himself, or try to lift up himself above his brethren He was very contrite before God — a mourner in secret for his own and others' sins, he was meek and lowly in heart. I will yet add in conclusion, that after a very serious review of what has come under my own personal observation, and what I have heard from worthy and credible persons, of either his temper or conversation, or his management of affairs pertaining to his position in the church, I have never seen or heard that he made a false step or did anything that proved him to be insincere or that was scandalous or of ill report, but on the contrary very laudable and worthy of imitation. What secret defects he may have had were known to God and himself."*

No sooner was Benjamin Eby ordained as minister than he advocated strongly the building of meeting-houses. His idea was to have houses of worship built in which to hold regular services. Private houses, he said, answered the purpose very well as long as the membership was small, but since we have had such a large increase in membership it has become necessary for us to have churches. He found strong opposition at first, but the Erbs, Schneiders, Brubachers, Ebys and a few others, agreed with him on this point, and the result was that a log church was erected in 1813. (See cut.) In this church Bishop Eby taught school during the winter months. The first regularly organized school in this section was held in a little log house situated near "Indian" Sam Eby's residence, now known as "Jacob Fry's old place," on the south side of the road leading from the "Two Bridges" to Mill Creek, near the former residence of Jacob Y. Shantz. This building, containing but one room, was erected for a private house, but the party ordering its erection failed to make his appearance, hence it was turned into a school house and utilized as such until the church was built in 1813. The school was first opened some time in October, 1809, by Mr. John Beatty, a native of Ireland, who came to the Eby Settlement, as Berlin was then called, some time during the summer of the same year. After being convinced that Mr. Beatty had a fair English education, the following parties, viz., Benjamin Eby, Joseph Schneider, George Eby, Samuel Eby ("Indian Sam"), Jacob Erb and others, engaged him as their teacher for the winter months. School was generally closed the week before Easter. Among the first pupils who attended this the first school opened in Ebytown we find David Erb, George Eby, Catharine E. Schneider, Jacob E. Schneider, Elizabeth E. Schneider, Nancy Eby, John Eby, Peter Eby and others. Mr. Beatty was re-engaged as their teacher in the fall of 1810, and according to the statements given me by some of the old pupils, he must have taught there three or four years in succession. After the erection of the Mennonite church in 1813 the school was moved to that place, where Bishop Eby taught for many winters in succession. In 1833 it was thought advisable to erect a new church, owing to the fact that the log church was too small to accommodate the large congregations that assembled here to worship. In 1834 the large church still standing was erected. (See cut.) This church is still known as Eby's Meeting-House, or, "'s Eby's Versammlungshaus."

I.—The Family of Isaac Ebys and his Wife Veronica Shoemaker.

Isaac Ebys, the eldest son of Benjamin Eby4, was born in the small log house on the 30th of July, 1808. He spent his single days at home on his father's farm. On the 30th day of October, 1831, he was married to Veronica Shoemaker, daughter of John and Mary (Shantz) Shoemaker, who was born February 2, 1815. In November of the same year of their marriage they moved on their farm, situated two and one-half miles east of Berlin, being the north-west part of Lot No. 120 of the German Company Tract, in the Township and County of Waterloo, containing by admeasurement 188 acres. The farm was, with the exception of a few acres where their first house and log stables stood, heavily timbered with all kinds of hard wood. Wolves, bears and deer were quite numerous then, and the howling of wolves was their evening band. Here they lived for nearly forty-three years. A few months before his death he disposed of his farm to Mr. Moses Betzner. Of the numerous assistants they have had on their farm George Schmidt, afterwards a minister of the Gospel in the Mennonite Church, James Potter, now residing in Berlin, Jacob Becker, Barbara Rudy, now Mrs. Valentine Knechtel and mother of Rev. S. R. Knechtel, and Martha Allardyce, now of Toronto, were their favorites. These were always considered as members of their family.

Isaac Ebys and his wife had a family of ten children, as follows:

1. ELIAS6, the eldest son of Catharine Eby and her husband David Weber, was born in the Town of Berlin, Ont., on the 22nd day of February, 1834. He spent his boyhood days on the farm. During the winter months he attended the common public schools. On the 20th of March, 1855, he was married to Mary Shoemaker. They now reside on the old Kunniman farm, one mile west of Breslau, Ont., on the Berlin Road. They have had a family of nine children, as follows: Sarah, died young; Simon, died young; Lovina, married to Jacob Woolner; Leah, died young; Nancy, married to Aaron Schiedel; Lydia, married to David Reist; Amos, Israel and Mary. In his young days he joined the church of his choice, the Mennonite, and a few years later he was chosen as a deacon. He was afterwards called to the ministry on the Cressman field of labor, and finally, upon the death of Bishop Joseph Hagey, he was ordained Bishop. He is of a genial and sociable disposition, but guards himself against frivolity. He is generally well received by the people, beloved by all, and it may be said of him that he is one of those men who make for themselves many friends and few enemies. His talent as a minister compares favorably with that of the majority of our day. His education is rather limited, but he has studied and made good progress in the acquisition of Bible knowledge. His preaching is spiritual and at most times powerful and convincing, having great effect on the large audience generally present. That he has the confidence and high esteem of the whole congregation, is evident from the fact that he was chosen as one of the candidates for the office of Bishop. May he be spared for many years to come, and may his labors be crowned with glorious success in winning souls for the Lord.

2. SUSANNAH[6] was born on the 19th of April, 1836, and died on the 7th of August, 1863. She was married to John Shuh, of the Town of Waterloo, and left a family of two sons, Franklin, married to Catharine Shantz, and Levi, married to Emma Schwartz.

3. ANDREW[6], the second son of Catharine Eby[5] and her husband David Weber, was born August 3, 1838. The house in which he was born was situated on the exact spot where now the Grand Trunk station is standing. He is married to Veronica Shantz. He follows farming and owns a beautiful farm situated on the north-eastern outskirts of the Town of Berlin, Ont., on the Lancaster Road. They have had a family of eight children, as follows: Malissa and Ellen, both died in infancy, Sabina, Ephraim, Manasseh, Elsie, Edwin and Ivan.

4. MARY,[6] the fourth member of the family, is married to Moses Devitt, a farmer. They reside on a farm at West Montrose, Waterloo County, Ontario, and have a family of six children, as follows: Albert, Edwin, Malinda, Malissa, Noah and Mary.

5. PETER E.[6], the fifth member of the family, is a miller by trade and was married June 5, 1870, to Magdalena Clemens, who was born on the 8th of May, 1844, and died on the 5th of October, 1874. They left no issue. He is still a widower and has his home with his brothers Theodore and Henry.

6. MAGDALENA[6], the sixth member of the family, was mrried to Amos Weaver. They lived on a farm near Listowel, Perth County, Ont. She left a family of seven children, as follows: Mary Ann, Ida, Allan, Albert, Lucinda, Menno and Solomon.

7. VERONICA[6], the seventh member of the family, is married to Jacob Kinzie, a farmer. They reside near Mildmay, Ontario, and have a family of six children, namely: Elam, Rosetta, Isaiah, Agabus, Luanna and William Bruno.

8. THEODORE[6], the eighth member of the family, is married to Sarah Woolner and resides on the old homestead, which he and his brother Henry purchased some years ago from the estate of their father. He has a family of four children, as follows: Susannah, Simon (died), Celina and Hannah.

9. HENRY E.[6], the youngest son, is married to Anna Zeller. He follows farming and lives on the old homestead. They have a small family of two children, Ada Cecilia and Laura May.

10. LUCINDA[6] is married to Eli C. Shantz and lives on a farm about two miles east of Berlin. They have a family of two children, namely: Velina and Sylvester.

11. MATILDA[6] is married to Casper Schmidt. They reside on a farm a few miles north of Preston and have five children, as follows: Harvey, Isaiah, Milton; the names of the other two were not ascertained.

V.—MARIA EBY[5] AND HER HUSBAND WILLIAM BOMBERGER.

Maria Eby[5], the third and youngest daughter of Bishop Benjamin Eby[4], was born on the 14th of March, 1816. She was married to William Bomberger (born May 30, 1816), son of Christian and Mary (Erb) Bomberger. After their marriage they moved on a farm three miles east of Berlin. From there they moved on a small farm two and one-half miles north of Waterloo, where they both died. She died June 21, 1861, aged 45 years, 3 months and 7 days. He died January 22, 1886, aged 69 years, 7 months and 22 days. They left no heirs.

VI. — THE FAMILY OF BENJAMIN E. EBY[5] AND HIS WIFE ELIZABETH CRESSMAN.

Benjamin E. Eby[5], the sixth member and third son of the family of Bishop Benjamin Eby[4], was born on the 10th of February, 1818. He was married to Elizabeth Cressman, daughter of Abraham and Mary (Schneider) Cressman. She was born October 4, 1818, and died February 23, 1889, aged 70 years, 4 months and 19 days. They moved on a farm two and one-half miles east of Berlin, on south-west part of Lot No. 120, G. C. T., where they lived for many years. During their old age they lived with their son-in-law, John Erb, where they died. They were blessed with a family of five children, as follows:

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.
MARY[6]	June 17, 1840.....	.....	John Erb.
AMOS[6].....	April 13, 1842	.....	Hettie Moyer.
LEAH[6].....	November 22, 1844.	.....	Moses Kenzie.
SARAH[6]	April 24, 1847	March 1, 1880	David Moyer.
SUSANNAH[6]...	July 31, 1849	March 2, 1852.

1. MARY[6], the first member of the above family, is married to John Erb. They reside on a farm two miles south of Berlin, on the north side of the Preston Road. They have two children, Angeline and Sarah. Angeline is married to Abraham Henry Wambold.

2. AMOS[6], the only son of Benjamin E. Eby[5], was born April 13, 1842. He was married February 9, 1864, to Hettie Moyer. He commenced farming at home on his father's farm, but in the year 1870 he moved on his own farm in Maryborough, Wellington County, Ontario, where he resided for a number of years. Since entering the ministry of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ he has disposed of his farm, and at present he is stationed on the Port Elgin field of labor, where he is doing a noble work for our Lord. As a minister he has proved successful on every field on which he has been stationed by the conference. Like his cousin Bishop Elias Weber, the winter months only of his youthful days were spent at school, while during the summer months he was engaged in tilling the soil, hence his education is also limited, yet he is a good speaker in both languages, is well read in Bible literature, and is filled with that Spirit which comes from on high. May his efforts be crowned with glorious success. He has a family of six children, as follows: Allan, Louisa, Matilda, Norman (died), Josiah (died), Ida.

3. LEAH6 is married to Moses Kenzie, a farmer. They live on the Preston Road, two miles south of Breslau, Waterloo County, Ontario, near Cressman's Meeting-House. They have two children, Simon, married to Sarah Kraft, and Lovina.

4. SARAH6 was married to David S. Moyer. They resided on a farm near Lebanon, Maryborough Township, Wellington County, Ontario, where she died on the 1st of March, 1880. They had a family of seven children, of whom three died before their mother: Lucinda (died), Urias (died), Lizzie, Adaline (died), Phoebe, Ida and Sarah.

5. SUSANNAH6 was born July 31, 1849, and died March 2, 1852, aged 2 years and 7 months.

VII.—THE FAMILY OF HENRY EBY5 AND HIS WIFE ELIZABETH BOWERS.

Henry Eby5, the fourth son of Bishop Benjamin Eby4, received a fair school education. He was a printer by trade and for some time editor and publisher of the Deutscher Canadier, issued weekly at Berlin, Ont. He also published many books and all kinds of English and German literature. His printing office and residence were situated on the west side of King Street, South Ward, Berlin, about 150 yards from the Market House. The property is now owned by the heirs of the late Isaac Eby5. The widow of Isaac Eby resides in the old residence, and the printing office has been turned into a dwelling house, which is rented to a daughter of the late Mr. Bitzer, who has been residing in it for a number of years.—Henry Eby5 was married on the 22nd of August, 1843, to Elizabeth Bowers, who was born November 12, 1825. He left a family of three daughters, as follows:

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.
JULIA ANNA[6] .	August 15, 1844....	.....	Richard C. Cowan.
HARRIET[6].....	October 10, 1846...	.....	Isaac B. Burkholder
ADELAIDE[6] ...	September 9, 1848..	May 1, 1877.....	Daniel E. Bowman.

1. JULIA ANNA[6], now residing in the Town of Berlin, Ontario, is married to Richard C. Cowan, and has a family of nine children, namely, Robert Henry, William Craig, Charles Edward, Walter Richard (died), Thomas Albert, Maria Louisa, Richard Eby, Frederick Harold, Alice Olga.

2. HARRIET[6] was married to Isaac B. Burkholder, who died some years ago. She now resides in Port Huron, Michigan. She has had a family of four children, of whom one is dead, as follows: Arthur Henry (died), Daniel Fairford, Alfred and Mary Alice.

3. ADELAIDE[6] was married to Daniel E. Bowman. She died May 1, 1877, without issue.

VIII.—CHRISTIAN EBY[5] AND HIS WIFE MARY CRESSMAN.

Christian Eby[5], the fifth son and eighth member of Bishop Benjamin Eby's[4] family, was born June 19, 1821. He was received as a member of the Mennonite Church while yet a young man. On the 26th of February, 1854, he was ordained as a minister of the church. The congregation soon found him to be a man of more than ordinary talents. Having his mind well stored with biblical and other knowledge, besides being endued with grace and unction from on high, he was fully qualified for the work of the ministry. He ranked with the best ministers of the church in his day, and was by all considered sound in the doctrine of their famous founder, Menno Simon. He did not, like some, try to build the house of God, the Lord's temple, with wood, hay and stubble, but with gold, silver and precious stones. His sermons were generally well prepared for the various occasions, full of logic, adapted to the wants of the hearers and attended with divine influence and power, hence deep and lasting impressions were made upon his large congregations. The writer heard him preach telling sermons even within the first years of his ministry, and many times afterwards. He was very punctual in attending to his appointments and faithful in visiting the poor and all members of the church placed under his charge. He had words of cheer and comfort for all, always directing them to Him who died for all. During the year 1857 it was noticed that his health was failing, and, to the great loss of the church, he, on the 5th day of November, 1859, passed out of this vale of tears to mansions above, where all is peace and joy. He was married to Mary Cressman, daughter of Abraham and Mary (Schneider) Cressman. She was born December 17, 1820, and died April 23, 1867. They resided on the old homestead of his father, Bishop Benjamin Eby. They had two children, who lived but a few hours, as follows:

1. Tobias[6], born June 13, 1858, died June 13, 1858.
2. Mary[6], born May 26, 1859, died May 26, 1859.

IX.—The Family of Abraham Eby[5] and his Wife Lucy Hembling.

Abraham Eby[5], the sixth son of Bishop Benjamin Eby[4], was born on the old homestead on the 21st day of November, 1823. On the 30th day of April, 1843, he was married to Lucy Hembling, who was born August 9, 1822. Soon after their marriage they moved on a farm two and one-half miles east of Berlin. This farm is now owned by Henry Cressman. Here they resided nearly five years, when they moved on another farm two and one-half miles north of the Town of Waterloo, where they lived for about five years, then they sold out and moved to the village of Bridgeport, where they resided until his death. His widow still owns and occupies the old homestead. They had a family of eleven children, given as follows:

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.
HANNAH[6]	February 12, 1844		Jonas B. Detwiler.
MAGDALENA[6]	April 19, 1845		John Auman.

WILLIAM[6]	November 25, 1862.		Susan Goeler.
ISAAC H.[6]	May 21, 1865		Bertha Limpert.

1. Hannah[6], the eldest of the above family, has had children as follows: Louisa Jane, Lucy Ann, Adelaide Matilda, Mary Etta, Irwin (died), Hannah (died), Magdalena (died), Harvey (died). Her husband is a carpenter and they reside in the Town of Berlin, Ont.

2. Magdalena[6] resides in Marion, Kansas. She has a family of seven children, namely: Edward Leander, Lucy Malinda, Henry David, Ida Elenor, Charlotte Anna, John Oscar and Angelina. Her husband is a ferrier and blacksmith.

3. Tilman[6], the first son, died May 1, 1850, aged 3 years and 28 days.

4. Phoebe[6] resides in Bridgeport, Ont., and has a family as follows: Lucy Etta, Charles Edward, Mary Ann, Albert L. (died), Isaac Oscar, Leah Elizabeth, William Henry, Abraham Odo, Milton (died), Charlotte Ina. Her husband is a cooper by trade and is employed in Mr. Peter Shirk's cooperage.

5. HERMAN6 resides in the Town of Berlin, Ont., and is agent for various companies and manufacturers. His family is as follows: Lilly (dead), Allan Alexander, Adelaide Matilda, Estella, Hermenia, Stanley.

6. EDWARD6 was accidentally killed at a Sabbath school celebration, on a Saturday afternoon, July 23, 1859.

7. NOAH6 lives in the village of Bloomingdale, Ontario, where he is foreman in Mr. O. Oberholtzer's factory. He has a family as follows: Abraham, William Edward, Charlotte, Emma, Della May, Lucy Dorcus.

8. CHARLOTTE6 is married to Mr. Charles Van Pelt and resides in Marion, Kansas. She has two sons, namely: Clarence Eby, and an infant son of whose name we have not been informed.

9. DIANNA6 died July 27, 1862, aged 1 year, 4 months and 13 days.

10. WILLIAM6 resides in the village of Bridgeport, Ontario, and is a cooper by trade. He has a family of four children, namely, Edward, Henry, William and Anna.

11. ISAAC H.6 is also a cooper by trade and resides at home with his mother in Bridgeport, Ontario.

X.—THE FAMILY OF JACOB B. EBY5 AND HIS WIFE LUCY KAUFFMAN.

Jacob B. Eby5, the seventh son of Bishop Benjamin Eby4, was born on the 24th of March, 1826. After his marriage in September, 1845, to Lucy Kauffman (born February 26, 1830, and died September 24, 1877), he moved on his farm three miles north of the Town of Waterloo, Ont., where he resided for a number of years. He afterwards went into the milling business in partnership with his brother Elias, having purchased Barnabas Devitt's interest in the firm of Eby & Devitt, Bridgeport, Ont. In 1867 he sold his interest in the Bridgeport Mills and purchased the Salem Mills, where he carried on the business for some years. Some time within the years 1875–6 he disposed of his Salem property and moved to the Town of Waterloo, where his wife, Lucy Kauffman, died. On the 16th of September, 1878, he was married a second time to Elizabeth Schill (born May 12, 1848), to whom his youngest child was born. He died on the 21st of December, 1882. He had a large family, as follows:

Record of the Family of Maria Eby[4] (Brubacher).

Maria Eby[4], the youngest daughter of Christian Eby[3] and his wife Catharine Bricker, was born on the 12th day of October, 1787, in the old homestead mansion on Hammar Creek. Some time in October, 1807, she was married to Jacob Brubacher, who was born January 27, 1782, and died July 13, 1854, aged 72 years, 6 months and 3 days. Maria and her husband lived on the old Brubacher homestead, on the north side of Hammar Creek at the foot of the "Furnace Hills." She was of medium height and well proportioned, had a round face, plump and rosy features, black hair and sparkling eyes. The expression of her countenance was pleasant, she had an intelligent mind and was of a kind disposition. She was well read in the Scriptures and the old German Hymn Book—"Unpartheiisches Gesangbuch"—the standard singing book of the Old Mennonite Church. Many a troubled soul who came to her for comfort went away rejoicing, feeling thankful to God for the wholesome and refreshing words of cheer imparted by such a venerable old lady.—She died on the 16th of April, 1864, aged 76 years, 6 months and 4 days.

They had a family of nine children, as follows:

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.

On the 26th of October, 1856 he was married to Mary Ann Snavely, who was born Sept. 28, 1837. He resides at Mt. Joy, and is a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public and Surveyor. They have but one child, a daughter, named Fannie S.

2. JACOB N. BRUBACHER[6] was born July 25, 1838, near Mt. Joy, in Rapho Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. On the 1st of Nov., 1857, he married to Barbara H. Stauffer, who was born July 15, 1833. They reside on the old homestead of his father, Sem Brubacher, and have had a family of six children, as follows:

Jacob N. Brubacher and his wife united with the church of their choice (the Old Mennonite) on the 8th of October, 1859. He was ordained to the ministry on the 6th of June, 1865, and ordained as Bishop on the 25th of December, 1867. He is a very sociable man and has numerous friends, which are scattered over his entire field of labor. He is a kind and indulgent husband and a very affectionate father. He is very punctual in his ministerial duties, is always at his post and never (through his fault), behind time. Whatever his defects and faults may be (and who is without them?) no one who is acquainted with him doubts his christian character. He is firm and decided and never ashamed to confess his Saviour. He is a highly esteemed and beloved minister of the Gospel, and nearly everybody (if not all) loves to hear him preach. His sermons are simple, full of life and power, and they generally make deep and lasting impressions. His fine voice and pleasing manners, and also the fact of his preaching only short sermons, gain for him the reputation of being a masterly preacher. He preaches with great earnestness and his pulpit efforts are often very powerful and resistless and crowned with glorious success; sinners are awakened and converted, and believers are edified and strengthened in the work of grace. He is held in high esteem beyond his own church connection, being often requested by members of other Christian denominations to preach funeral sermons, for which he is specially adapted, since he is capable of preaching in both the English and German languages. He has a great talent for music and spends much time in singing. To him it is a most delightful exercise, and no doubt a source of much enjoyment. I imagine still hearing him sing the favorite old hymns, "Jesus, lover of my soul" and "Rock of Ages," and a few German hymns, which he sang for the writer and his wife while paying him a visit in September, 1876. May all his efforts put forth in the winning of souls for Jesus be crowned with a glorious success, and may the Lord spare his useful life for many years to come, is the writer's wish and prayer.

IX.—Elizabeth E. Brubacher.

Elizabeth E. Brubacher was born December 1, 1826; died October 27, 1853, aged 26 years, 10 months and 16 days.

(Here end the descendants of Christian Eby[3] and his wife Catharine Bricker.)

The Descendants of David Eby[2].

David Eby[2], youngest son of old Theodorus Eby[1] (see page 5), was born in May, 1701. He was a lad of sixteen years of age when he came with his father to America. He learned the carpenter trade in his young days, but in after years he followed that of blacksmithing and farming.—He was married to an English girl (of Quaker descent) by the name of Maggie Davis.* They had a family of five children, two sons and three daughters. Two of the daughters died in infancy and the other was married to a Mr. Clemson, an Englishman. Of the two sons, Samuel Davis Eby[3] and David Davis Eby[3], we have a record of but David Davis[3].—Samuel Davis[3] left home and went West in 1763.* A year thereafter his parents received a letter from him in which he stated that he was well contented where he was and that he shall never return home again.

David Davis Eby[3] and his Descendants.

David Davis Eby[3] was born at Roland's Mills, near New Holland, and near the present line of Earl and Leacock Townships, in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in the year 1742.* When but a young man he left home and went to Virginia, where he sojourned until the commencement of the Revolutionary War, in which he enlisted and remained a soldier until the war closed and the Independence of the Thirteen Colonies was established. After the close of the war he settled in Virginia. To whom he was married was not ascertained, but it is known that in the year 1807 two of his sons settled in Stark County, Ohio, to which place he followed them a few years later. He settled down near his sons and resided there until his death, which took place in 1823. This famous champion of Independence attained unto the advanced age of 81 years.† He had a family of six sons, namely: John4, David4, Peter4, Henry4, Thomas4 and Joseph4. We have trace of some of the descendants of John4, David4 and Peter4, but no record can be found of the others. We shall now take them in order according to their birth.

The Family of John Eby4.

John Eby4, the eldest son of David Davis Eby3, settled near Canton, Ohio, in 1807, several years ahead of his father. He was one of the pioneer school masters of that section. He was married a second time and had a family of seventeen children, whose names were as follows: Samuel5, Michael5, Daniel5, David5, Gabriel5, Peter5, Mary5, Susan5, Salome5, Joseph5, Jacob5, John5, Catharine5, Elizabeth5, Adam5, Thomas and Simon5. Of the descendants of some of these nothing is known and but little has been ascertained of others.

I.—The Family of Samuel Eby5 and his Wife Elizabeth.

Samuel5, the eldest son of John Eby4, died a few years ago, as also did his wife Elizabeth. They had a family of nine children, as follows:

CAROLINE6, born in 1836, married to Mr. —— Myers.
WILLIAM6, " " 1837, died in 1874.
DELILAH6, " " 1840, married to Mr. —— Caldwell.
ELIZABETH6, " " 1842, married to Mr. —— Haas.
BENJAMIN6, " " 1843.
SYLVESTER6, " " 1846, lived but a few weeks.
SAMUEL6, " " 1847, died in 1872.
EDWARD6, " " 1848.
MARY ELLEN5" " 1854, married to Mr. —— Franks.

II.—The Family of Michael Eby5.

Michael5, the second son of John Eby4, was born in the year 1808, and lived for some time after his marriage at Harrisburg, Stark County, Ohio. His family consisted of five children, one son (named Wesley) and four daughters, all of whom were born at Harrisburg, Ohio. In later years he moved to Indiana.

III.—The Family of Daniel Eby[5].

Daniel[5], the third son of John Eby[4], was born in 1811. While yet a young man he went to Michigan, and in 1835 he married to Esther Shelhammer. To them were born four children, two of whom were twins named Owen[6] and Olive[6].

IV.—The Family of David Eby[5].

David[5], the fourth son of John Eby[4], was born in 1813. For some reason he wrote his name Ebi. He was married to a Miss Shelhammer. They resided in Michigan and had a family of eight children, six sons and two daughters. Their names are, Samuel[6], Nelson[6], Daniel[6], David[6], James[6], Ulysses[6], Rachel[6] and Amanda[6]. After the death of his wife David Ebi[5] spent some time in the far West. He built the first Methodist church in what was then the Territory of Colorado. With his second wife (a Mrs. Koehler) he took a trip to California, where he spent some time with his sons. His home is now in the village of Vistula, Elkhart County, Indiana.

V.—The Family of Gabriel Eby[5].

Gabriel[5], the fifth son of John Eby[4], was born in Stark County, Ohio, in the year 1818. He was married in 1846 to Caroline Wagner, a native of Germany. In 1847 they moved to Cass County, Michigan, where for some time wolves and deer were their principal neighbors. Although arriving here with but 50 cents in his pocket, he now owns one of the finest and best soiled farms in the county. They have had a family of eleven children, nine of whom, eight sons and one daughter, still survive, as follows: Peter[6], Christian[6], William[6], Samuel[6], Daniel[6], Gabriel[6], Ulyses[6], David[6] and Catharine[6].

VI.—The Family of Peter Eby[5].

Peter[5], the sixth son of John Eby[4], was born in Stark County, Ohio, in the year 1820. He was married in 1846. His wife was born in Miami County, Ohio, in 1822. For many years they have resided on a farm in Cass County, Michigan. They have two sons, Elias[6] and Cassius[6].

VII.—The Family of Mary Eby[5] (Frank).

Mary[5], eldest daughter of John Eby[4], had her home with her uncle David Eby[4], near Canton, Ohio. She married to Peter Frank, then settled in Elkhart County, Indiana. They had a family of two sons, namely: Joseph[6] and David[6].

VIII.—SUSAN EBY[5] (MYERS).

Susan[5], daughter of John Eby[4], married to Ellis Myers and had a family of seven children.

IX.—SALOME EBY[5] (GRISE).

Salome[5], another daughter of John Eby[4], was married to Daniel Grise and had a family of six children.

Of the other members of John Eby's[4] family there is but little known. They are scattered throughout the Western and Southern States.

The Family of David Eby[4].

David Eby[4], second son of David Davis Eby[3], was born in Virginia in the year 1783. In 1807 he, in company with his elder brother John[4], went to Stark County, Ohio, where he took up a piece of land upon which he erected a log cabin. Early in the year 1808 he married to Catharine Leezer, when they commenced house-keeping in the log cabin erected the previous year. Their home was situated on the Harrisburg Road, five miles north-east of Canton. Their nearest neighbors, for the first few years, were nearly three miles distant, one on what is now the Menegay and the other on what is now the Harmon farm. Old David Eby[4] spent his life on the farm he cleared up. He died in 1861 respected by all who knew him. They had a family of seven children, six of whom lived to adult age, and three are still living. Their names are as follows: Levi[5], Reuben[5], Peter[5], Delilah[5], Rhoda[5] and Rachel[5]. Their descendants are as follows:

I.—THE FAMILY OF LEVI EBI[5].

Levi Ebi[5], the eldest son of David Eby[4], was born April 21, 1809. He was married to Susan Koontz about A. D., 1832. To them were born five sons and four daughters, four of which lived to adult age. This family began to write their name Ebi instead of Eby. They lived happily together on a farm six miles north of Canton, Ohio, where they (the parents) both died in April, 1850. Their children were, Sarah Ann[6], Rachel[6], Edward[6] and Monroe[6].

1. Sarah Ann[6], the eldest daughter of Levi Ebi[5], was married to E. H. Shider, and moved with him to Indiana, locating near Elkhart. They subsequently removed to California, where the wife, Sarah Ann Ebi[6], died. E. H. Shider, the husband, died a few years later. Four of their children are still living.

2. Rachel[6], second daughter of Levi Ebi[5], was married to Benjamin Shidler. They settled near Goshen, Indiana, where the husband died. The widow and five children, four sons and one daughter, are still living.

3. Edward[6], the eldest son of Levi Ebi[5], was born near Canton, Ohio, in 1837. He attended college at Mt. Union, Ohio, where he graduated in 1860. A few years later he studied dentistry, and in 1865 located in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he still practises.

4. Monroe[6], the youngest son of Levi Ebi[5], was born in Canton, Ohio, in the year 1842. At the age of eight years he was left an orphan. Mr. Henry Hoover was appointed his guardian, with whom he made his home, after living a few years with relatives. He was sent to the college at Mt. Union, Ohio, for a few terms. In 1860 he began work as a salesman in the dry goods store of John R. Bucher, Canton, Ohio. He engaged himself for a term of three years, but in the Autumn of 1861, as the Civil War began to rage, his patriotism for the Union caused him to resign his position and enter the army. He enlisted in Company I of the 19th Ohio Volunteer Infantry for three years' service. A few months after entering the army he was made a corporal and afterwards 5th sergeant of the company. April 6th and 7th, 1862, his company participated in their first battle at Shiloh, Tennessee. Some time after this he was ordered home by Secretary Stanton on a recruiting service, where he remained until February, 1863, when he rejoined his regiment at Murfreesboro, Tenn., and was made 1st sergeant. During this year they were engaged in several hard battles: At Lee and Gordan's Mills (Georgia), Orchard Knob and Missionary Ridge (Tenn.); at Chattanooga they suffered a seige for nearly seventy days and had to live on very short rations. January 1, 1864, Mr. Ebi enlisted for another term of three years. From the 10th of May, 1864, his regiment was under almost continuous fire for over one hundred days in what was called the Atlanta Campaign. In the battle fought at Love Joy Station, September 2, 1864, he was severely wounded, a ball entering his right shoulder and passing down through the right side, fracturing two ribs, crossing through the small of the back and finally lodging on left hip bone. He was left on the field until the next day when he was taken to the field hospital and the day following to Atlanta, a distance of thirty-six miles. Here he lay on a hard floor, no bed being offered him, nor was one to be had, for several days, when he was sent on to Chattanooga, where he arrived early on the morning of the 9th of September and had his wound dressed for the first time. January 1, 1865, he went home on a furlough and rejoined his regiment February 28, 1865, when he was mustered as 2nd lieutenant. On the 29th day of March he was commissioned 1st lieutenant and transferred to Company F, and on the 1st day of June he was transferred to Company I, his old company, which he commanded until ordered to Texas, when he resigned his command and returned home, having rendered three years and nine months of as faithful service as could be given by any U. S. volunteer. He received honorable mention by both his Colonel and the General Commandery, and was voted a bronze medal by his native State, Ohio. Mr. Ebi[6], on returning to private life, spent a few months at Canton, Ohio, his old home, then took a trip west, through Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Missouri, and finally, January 1, 1866, he settled at Eddyville, Iowa, where he went into business in the sale of agricultural implements. Here he remained until September, 1867, when he removed to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and formed a partnership with J. D. Firestone in the hat and cap business, in which he continued two years. He then located at Davenport, Iowa, and for three years he travelled for Raff, Cock & Co. selling implements. In 1873 he, with two others, entered into the seed commission business, which continued only a few months. In 1874 a partnership was formed with George F. Newman, under the firm name of Ebi & Newman, as founders and machinists, which still continues with a fair degree of success.

Mr. Ebi[6] was married on the 25th of December, 1866, to Frances Maria Raff, who was born in Canton, Ohio, in 1843. They have been blessed with two children, namely: Helen Elizabeth, born May 9, 1869, and Albert Raff, born October 20, 1870. Mr. Ebi and family still reside in the city of Davenport, Iowa.

II.—Reuben Eby[5].

Reuben[5], the second son of David Eby[4], was born December 16, 1818. After the death of his father he remained for some time with his brother Peter on the old homestead. He subsequently resided on his farm near Manchester, Summit County, Ohio. When about 65 years of age he married Miss Maria Killinger, who lived but three years after their marriage. Reuben Eby[5] died February 24, 1889.

III.—Peter Eby[5] and Family.

Peter[5], the youngest son of David Eby[4], was born October 26, 1821. He was married to Anna Hershberger in 1852. He remained on the old homestead until 1857, when he removed to a residence built by himself two miles south of Louisville, Ohio. In the year 1885 he returned to the old farm, where he still resides. His family consisted of six children, four of which died while quite young. Two daughters, Phebe[6] and Matilda[6], are still living. Phebe was married in 1887 to Mr. Levi Summers; they continue to reside on the old homestead.

IV.—Delilah Eby5.

Delilah5, the eldest daughter of David Eby4, was born March 27, 1815. When but two years old she suffered from scarlet fever, which totally destroyed her sense of hearing. Notwithstanding this loss, she grew up to be an energetic, industrious woman, capable of directing the affairs of the house, and now, at the age of seventy-four, she is in good health and has lost none of her frugality. After the decease of her father, she spent most of her time with her sister Rachel, with whom she still resides near Canton, Ohio.

V.—Rhoda Eby5.

Rhoda5, the second daughter of David Eby4, was born November 22, 1816. She was engaged to be married, but before this event occurred she was taken sick, her case was soon pronounced hopeless, and she died in 1845, aged 29 years.

VI.—Rachel Eby5 and Family.

Rachel5, the youngest daughter of David Eby4, was born October 1, 1825. In the year 1850 she was married to Henry Grise. Her father purchased for them a farm adjoining his own, on which they lived until 1872, when they moved to Louisville, where the husband died in 1880, aged 64 years. Their union had been blessed with five children, two of which died in infancy. Of the three surviving, Eva A.6 married to John H. Summers; Ira A.6 was first married to Emma A. Seefong, and after her decease he married to Mrs. Emma Ballard; Ida A.6, the youngest, is married to Peter P. Moomaw.

The Family of Peter Eby4.

Peter Eby4, the third son of David Davis Eby3, was married and settled in Stark County, Ohio, about the year 1812, where they also had some experience of pioneer life. They raised a family of two sons and three daughters, as follows: Elizabeth5, Christiana5, Catharine5, John5, Daniel5.

I.—Elizabeth Eby5.

Elizabeth5, the eldest daughter of Peter Eby4, was married to a Mr. Fasnacht, but she died soon after their marriage.

II.—Christiana Eby5 and Family.

Christiana5, the second daughter of Peter Eby4, married to a Mr. Rupert. They moved to the State of Missouri after their family was nearly grown up.

III.—Catharine Eby2.

Catharine5, youngest daughter of Peter Eby4, was married to Mr. Fasnacht, the widowed husband of her deceased sister Elizabeth.

IV.—John Eby[5] and Family.

John[5], the eldest son of Peter Eby[4], was born July 8, 1814. October 25, 1838, he was married to Margaret Hossler. They lived in Marlboro Township, Stark County, Ohio. Some time after their marriage, they bought a farm two miles east of Hartville, in the same County, where they resided for thirty-five years. To them were born eighteen children, fourteen of which lived to adult age and thirteen of which are still living. The mother (his wife) died a few years ago, but Mr. Eby, who is now in his seventy-fifth year, is still enjoying a fair degree of health. He resides in Lake Township, Stark County, Ohio. He has retired from active life and is now taking his years of comfort. The names of the children, and to whom married, are as follows:

1. Daniel F.[6], married to Miss Showalter.
2. Levi[6], married to Miss Cripe.
3. Priscilla[6], married to Mr. Dunlap.
4. John[6], married to Miss Sprankle.
5. Peter[6], married to Miss Hoff.
6. George[6], married to Miss Slichtenmoyer.
7. Harriet[6], unmarried.
8. Hiram[6], married to Miss Young.
9. Lucetta[6], married to Mr. Sprankle.
10. Isabel[6], married to Mr. Royer.
11. Israel[6], died very suddenly in 1882, married to Miss Kurtz.
12. Frank[6], married to Miss Kinsley.
13. William[6], married to Miss Carper.
14. Reuben[6], married to Miss Gehman.

V.—Daniel Eby[5] and Family.

Daniel[5], the second son of Peter Eby[4], was born in 1816, and was married to Hannah Roof in 1842. He has spent his entire life-time on the old homestead upon which he was born, some two or three miles north-west of Middlebranch, Stark County, Ohio. They raised a family of four sons and seven daughters, whose names, and to whom married, are as follows:

1. Jacob[6], married to Miss Keinath.
2. Samuel[6], married to Miss Weaver.
3. Ira[6], married to Miss Danner.
4. Henry[6], married to Miss Wertenberger.
5. Christiana[6], married to Mr. Kurtz.
6. Elizabeth[6], married to Mr. Bowers.
7. Julia Ann[6], married to Mr. Royer.
8. Amanda[6], married to Mr. Ebright.
9. Catharine[6]. 10. Mary[6]. 11. Emma.

(Here end the descendants of David Eby[2].)

The Descendants of Michael Eby$_3$.

Michael Eby^3 (see page 5), the youngest son of Christian Eby^2 (son of old Theodorus^1) and his wife Elizabeth Mayer, was born on the 29th day of December, 1755. To whom he was married and when he died could not be ascertained. He resided in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and had a family of eight sons, whose names are as follows: Christian^4, Jacob^4, Hannes^4, Benjamin^4, Joseph^4, Samuel^4, Michael^4 and George^4. The two youngest were twins. All of the above family, with the exception of Samuel, moved to Maryland. Their descendants are now very numerous and are to be found in the city of Baltimore and different parts of the States of Maryland and Virginia and some of the Western and South-Western States and Territories.

Samuel Eby$_4$ and his Descendants.

Samuel$_4$, the sixth son of Michael Eby^3, was born on the 27th day of August, 1785. In June, 1807, he came to Canada with Benjamin Eby, Daniel Eby, David Eby and others. On the 25th of December (Christmas), 1808, he was married to Elizabeth Brech, who was born August 13, 1789; died November 28, 1872. Soon after his marriage he was ordained deacon in the Mennonite Church, which psition he held to the time of his death. Their farm was within the present corporation limits of the Town of Berlin, Ontario. Their farm buildings were situated a little to the north of the Grand Trunk Rail Road, right at the foot of the hill on the east side of the road leading from Berlin to Bridgeport. Their farm is now cut up into small town lots. He died January 25, 1844. They had a family of five children, whose names together with date of birth and death are as follows:

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.
MAGDALENA$_5$.	May 19, 1810....	July 22, 1883	Abraham B. Clemens.

1. Elizabeth Clemens[6] is married to John Bingeman, and lives on a farm near Washington, Oxford County, Ontario. She has one child, a daughter, named Veronica.

2. Susannah[6] was married to Peter Itter. They resided at Kossuth, Ontario. Had no issue.

3. Jacob E.[6] is married to Magdalena Bricker, and resides in Berlin, Ont. They have two children: Levi, residing in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Ada Priscilla.

4. Magdalena[6] was married to Peter E. Weber, and resided in Berlin, Ont. They left no issue.

5. Catharine[6] is married to Christian Eby. They reside in Berlin, Ontario, and have a family of five children, as follows: Lydia Ann, James Edward, Isabella, Jacob Foster and Isaac.

6. Veronica[6] is married to August Stengel. She resides in Breslau, Ontario, and has a family of six children, whose names are as follows: Paulina (dead), Elvina, Austin, Wesley, Clayton and a little baby boy whose name was not ascertained.

II.—Abraham Eby[5].

Abraham[5], second child of Samuel Eby[4], died with the measels on the 31st day of January, 1831, aged 18 years, 5 months and 24 days.

III.—John Eby[5] and Family.

John[5], the second son of Samuel[4] and Elizabeth (Brech) Eby, was born August 7, 1814. On the 7th day of November, 1837, he married to Rebecca Bricker, who was born September 22, 1819; died May 11, 1872. They resided on the farm now known as the "Poor House Farm," on which was built, in 1869, by the County Council of the County of Waterloo, the House of Industry and Refuge. The farm is directly east of Berlin, about ten minutes' walk from the Court House. Mr. Eby[5] was married a second time to Nancy Groff (widow), and is now comfortably located in the Town of Berlin, Ont. Of late years, however, he has been so unfortunate as to be almost totally deprived of his eye-sight. He has had a family of seven children, as follows:

1. Aaron6, the oldest of the above family, is married to Matilda Bowers. He is a doctor, and has been very successful in his practice up to the present. He is located in Sebringville, Ontario, and has had a family of seven children, namely: Rose (who died at the age of 21), Elizabeth, Robert, Minnie, Cyrus, Frederick and Grace.

2. Veronica6, married to Peter Furtney, resides in Petoskey, Michigan, and has a family of seven children, whose names are as follows: Abner, Moses, Hannah, Edward, Lydia Ann, Angeline and Matilda.

3. Magdalena6 married to Martin Dunham on the 10th of June, 1880. They reside on her father's old place, consisting of a few acres of land, with dwelling, which Mr. Eby reserved when he disposed of his farm to the County Council. They have a family of four children, namely: Bertha Mabel, Franklin, Edith and Herbert (died some time ago).

IV.—Veronica Eby5.

Veronica5, the second daughter of Samuel Eby4 and his wife Elizabeth Brech, was born May 31, 1816. In 1873 she married to Abraham Brubacher, of the Township of Woolwich, County of Waterloo, Ontario. He died a few years ago. In March, 1889, she, in company with others, moved to Ocheydan, Iowa, where she is still living and is quite well and hearty. She has no children.

V.—Henry Eby5 amd Family.

Henry5, the youngest in the family of Samuel Eby4, was born January 12, 1825. On the 11th of November, 1845, he was married to Maria Baumann, who was born March 2, 1824; died April 19, 1875. For some time they resided on the old homestead, but afterwards moved on a farm one mile north-east of Bridgeport, Ont. Some eighteen years ago he moved to Berlin, where his wife and two of his daughters died. Since the marriage of his daughter Elizabeth to Aaron B. Shantz he has made his home with her. She resides about one and one-half miles south of Berlin. He had a family of five children, as follows:

1. Solomon Eby[6], the eldest of the above family, when a young man joined the Old Mennonite Church, of which body, some years thereafter, he was ordained minister. Some eighteen or nineteen years ago, on account of some difference of opinion between him and the authorities of the church, he was separated from that body, and afterwards became one of the instruments in the organization of what is at present known as the Church of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ, usually called New Mennonites, of which body he was the first Presiding Elder. He was re-elected as Presiding Elder for quite a number of years in succession, but at present he is stationed on the Elmwood, Ontario, field of labor, where he is doing a grand work for the Lord. As a minister he has few superiors; speaks in both languages, and his sermons are full of life and spirit, refreshing to souls craving for spiritual manna. Many have been brought from darkness unto light through his labors. May he prove faithful unto the end, and when done here receive that crown of glory promised to all who do the Lord's will. He is married to Catharine Shantz, and has had a family of twelve children, of whom five are dead. Their names are as follows: Lydia, Hannah (dead), Lovina (dead), Priscilla (dead), Jeremiah, Josiah, Magdalena (dead), Fannie, Sarah Ann, Franklin (dead), Nellie and Ida.

2. Lydia Eby[6] is married to Jacob Traffelet, and resides at Port Elgin, Ontario. She has had a family of eleven children, one of whom is dead. Three boys and seven girls are still living,

3. Nancy Eby[6] is married to Samuel P. Eby, and resides on a farm a few miles west of Berlin, Ont. She has had a family of eleven children, namely: Noah, Leah, Solomon, Ezra (dead), Reuben, Benjamin, Samuel, Catharine, Simon, Levi and Isaiah. (See page 63.)

4. John Eby[6] is married to Elizabeth Lawson, and has a family of six children, two boys and four girls. He resides in Elkhart, Indiana, U. S., where he is engaged as a minister of the Gospel in the United Brethren Church. In his calling he is doing a good work for the Lord, having been very successful as a minister. Sinners are converted and brought to the Lord through his labors, and the people of God are generally greatly refreshed in spirit while listening to his able sermons.

5. Levi Eby[6], married to Mary Lawson, resides in Norwood Park, Cook Co., Illinois. He is a local minister in the Methodist Church. He has had a family of fifteen children of whom six are dead. Six boys and three girls are still living.

6. Magdalena Eby[6] is married to Joseph Thede, and resides in Port Elgin, Ont. She has no family.

7. Catharine Eby[6] is married to Samuel Bushlier, and resides in Port Elgin, Ont. She has a family of eleven children, six girls and five boys.

8. Elias Eby[6] was converted in his early days. In March, 1870, he joined the Evangelical Church, and entered the ministry in 1876. He was first stationed on the Sebringville (Ont.) Circuit, where he remained seven months, and the remainder of the year he was stationed on the Bentinck (Ont.) Mission. In 1877 he was stationed on the Middleton Mission, and during 1878–9 he was a local. In 1880 he was again stationed on the Sebringville Circuit, and during the years 1881–2 he labored on the Maitland Mission. During the years 1883–4–5 he was stationed on the Pembroke (Ont.) Mission, and during the years 1886–7 on the Niagara Mission. In the Spring of 1888 the conference placed him on the Morriston Mission, where he is still laboring. So far he has proved successful in the ministry. May he still continue doing work for our Lord. On the 22nd of April, 1879, he married to Margaret Bender, who was born on the 17th of February, 1851. He has a family of four children, as follows: Sibylla (born May 30, 1880), Edwin (born Aug. 19, 1881), Laurinda (born April 20, 1884) and Oscar (born June 14, 1886).

9. Sarah Eby[6], married to George Reuber, resides at Port Elgin, Ont., and has a family of six children, two boys and four girls.

10. Veronica Eby[6], married to John Schwalm, resides at Port Elgin, Ont., and has had a family of eight children, two of whom are dead. One boy and five girls are still living.

VII.—David Eby[5] and Family.

David Eby[5], the sixth son of George and Barbara (Wenger) Eby[4], was born on the farm now owned by Jacob B. Shantz, within the corporation of the Town of Berlin, Ont., on the 23rd of April, 1812. On the 20th of January, 1835, he was married to Christina Hauck, who was born November 11, 1816, and died October 13, 1853. He died in Elmira, Waterloo County, Ontario, on the 19th of June, 1886, aged 74 years, 1 month and 26 days. They were blessed with a family of eleven children, as follows:

IX.—Elizabeth Eby[5] (Bowers) and Family.

Elizabeth Eby[5], the third daughter of George and Barbara (Wenger) Eby[4], was married to Cyrus Bowers, a farmer, who was born September 27, 1816, and died October 19, 1889. She died April 5, 1843. They resided on "Sweet Briar Farm," two miles south-west of Berlin, Ontario, where they had a family of three children, as follows:

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.
JOHN E.[6]	October 18, 1839.	.....	Mary Seiler.
JACOB E.[6]	October 10, 1841 .	.....	Kate Walbank.
A DAUGHTER....	April 5, 1843	April 7, 1843.

1. The Rev. John Eby Bowers[6], the first member of the above family, was born October 18, 1839, in Waterloo County, Ontario (then called Upper Canada). He lived on the "old farm," two miles south-west of Berlin, until he was eighteen years of age, and then went "to town" and became a shop-boy, or clerk, in a general store. In the year 1860 he named the home of his boyhood, "Sweet Briar Farm," and the place has been known by this name ever since. He was engaged in the mercantile business for about six years, part of the time in the village of Bridgeport, afterwards in Berlin, and in the year 1867 closed up his affairs and moved to the West. He resided with his family in the State of Missouri for about three years; and also in the State of Kansas for the same length of time, where he followed the avocation of a book-keeper. During two years he held the position of clerk in office of the United States District Court, for the Western District of Missouri, located at Jefferson City, the capital of the State. But finding that sedentary employment did not agree with his health, he retired from his position, and began to prepare himself to enter the ministry. At the age of twenty-one years Mr. Bowers had become a member of the Church of the New Jerusalem, commonly known as "Swedenborgian," being baptized into that faith by the pastor of that Church at Berlin, namely, the Rev. F. W. Tuerk. In the year 1870 he was licensed to preach, and he continued his preparations by close application to the study ot the doctrine of his Church, according to the Word of God, under the direction of the late Rev. J. P. Stuart, the President of the Missouri Association of the New Jerusalem. And on the 11th of May, 1873, he was ordained into the ministry by the person just mentioned, at Jefferson City, Missouri. In the month of June, 1873, he returned to Canada. In August of the same year he went to Pennsylvania, spent a few weeks at Allentown, in that State, and arrived in the city of Philadelphia on the first day of September, 1873. He accepted a call from the Frankford Society of the New Church, in Philadelphia, and at once entered upon his duties as pastor, in which capacity he served for the space of about four years. His relations were pleasant, and he enjoyed his residence with the kind and hospitable people of the "city of brotherly love." Circumstances, however, brought about a change; and, under the guidance of the Divine Providence, the subject of this sketch was led to go to Toronto, Ontario, where he received a call to become the pastor of the New Church Society, and began his ministry in the month of October, 1877. He filled this position for two years; and then in October, 1879, began his labors as a General Missionary, and has continued as such up to the time of the present writing. For five years he travelled most of the time in the United States, devoting most of his labors to the State of Pennsylvania. He has, however, also visited many places in all the Northern States, as far south as Maryland and Virginia in the east, and as far west as Illinois and Minnesota. He has preached and lectured in no less than one hundred and twenty-five different places; that is, in thirteen States of the American Union and in Canada. He has sold many thousands of volumes of books, and has distributed vast numbers of religious tracts, all of which contained the heavenly doctrines of the Church of the New Jerusalem; for the spreading abroad of the edifying literature of the Church, is a legitimate part of the uses performed by a missionary. In the course of his labors, this missionary has travelled an aggregate distance equal to three tours around our globe. There are few who are personally acquainted with as many different people in as many different localities. During the past six years Mr. Bowers has been employed as the missionary of the Canada Association of the New Church. He is still filling his post: and in connection with his work he visits a number of places in Michigan, spending a few weeks or a month in that State every Fall and Spring. His experiences in life have been of a varied character, and well adapted to expand the thoughts and affections of the mind, to cultivate and deepen the sympathies toward all mankind, and especially toward those who are of the household of a true and living faith in God. Mr. Bowers has also accomplished something as an author. Many of his written sermons, in both the English and German languages, have been published in the Church periodicals; and in January, 1889, there was published, as the product of his pen, a neat volume of 185 pages, entitled: "Missionary Talks on Subjects of New Church Doctrine." The book has been well received and is being widely circulated in England, the United States and Canada. He is also devoting his leisure to the preparation of another work for publication, which will probably appear some time in the beginning of next year.—Mr. Bowers is married to Mary Seiler, and has a family of four children, namely: Alice S., Almina E., Alberta L., Eaton J.

2. Jacob E. Bowers$_6$, the second son of Cyrus and Elizabeth (Eby$_5$) Bowers, spent his boyhood days on the farm, near Berlin, Ontario. After having acquired a fair common school education at home, he entered the Toronto University, choosing the Arts Course, from which, in due course of time, he graduated with honors, the faculty conferring upon him the degree of B. A. He afterwards entered the Michigan University, at Ann Arbor, choosing the Medical Course. After his graduation from Michigan University, at which he stood a very creditable examination, he located at St. Peter, Minnesota, having been appointed Superintendent of the Insane Asylum at that place. At present he is a very successful physician at St. Paul, Minn., where he enjoys a very lucrative practice. He is married to Kate Walbank, and has had two children, both of which died in infancy.

X.—Veronica Eby^5 (Hoffman) and Family.

Veronica Eby^5, the youngest daughter of George Eby$_5$, was born on the 8th day of March, 1817, and died on the 19th day of December, 1876. She was married to Jacob Hoffman, who was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, on the 18th day of September, 1809, and died in Berlin, Ont., on the 15th of November, 1864. They had a family of eight or nine children, but the names, with date of birth, etc., of two or three which died in infancy were not given.

Daniel Eby[4] and his Descendants.

Daniel Eby4, the eldest of the above family, in company with Samu Eby, David Eby, Benjamin Eby and others, came to Canada in 180 He had his home with his cousin, Benjamin Eby. In 1809 he married t a Miss Brech, by whom he had two daughters. One died young, and th other married to Mr. Rosenberger, a farmer, now residing in Huron Count Ontario. Daniel Eby's first wife died in 1815 or 1816. In October, 181 he left Canada and went to Western Pennsylvania, where he formed a acquaintance with Delilah Moxley, a widow, residing in McClellandtow near Pittsburg, to whom he married in January, 1818, and soon thereafte moved to what is now the Township and County of Waterloo, Province Ontario. They took up land a little to the north of the Town of Waterlo the farm being now known as the "Huber," or "Mrs. Sittler Farm." He he resided but a short time, and then went back to Pennsylvania, whe he took sick, and died November 28, 1820. His wife remained in Canad and died June 25, 1842. They were blessed with one son, name Benjamin B.5, who was born on the 24th of December, 1819.

Benjamin B. Eby[5] and Family.

Benjamin B. Eby5, the only son of Daniel Eby4, was married to Sara Smith, who died of small-pox on the 2nd of January, 1847, aged 18 year 8 months and 14 days. After the death of his wife he left Berlin, Ontari and went to Stratford, Ontario, thence to Hamilton, Ontario. Fro Hamilton he went to Wheeling, West Virginia, where, on the 18th January, 1848, he married a second time. His second wife's name w Susan Watkins, born June 29, 1829, in Guernsey County, Ohio. She die on the 7th of March, 1885. They had a family of eight children, a follows :

All the named children, with the exception of Sarah Cordelia, who was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, were born in Louisville, Kentucky. Benjamin Franklin Eby^6, the third son of the above family, was married to Mary Della Townsend, and at his death left a family of three children, namely: Daisy Adams, Robert Lee and Irene.

Joseph Eby^4.

Joseph Eby$_4$, the second son of John Eby$_3$, born December 13, 1777, came to Canada, from Pennsylvania, in 1818. He spent most of his time with his cousin, Bishop Benjamin Eby, and Christian Burkholder (who resided one mile of the north of the Town of Waterloo, on the place now known as Buck's Hill). When at Christian Burkholder's, "Josey" (or "der kla Joe Avy," as he was called), spent his leisure time in making shoes for the primitive settlers. The shoes were made without the use of a last, and when done had more the resemblance of a leather bag than of a shoe. He used no pegs, the shoe being made complete by sewing. He lived a very conscientious life, was strongly opposed to the use of intoxicating liquors and obscene language, and card playing and all kinds of gambling, so common in those days. Joseph was never married, and in the latter years of his life was much troubled with a severe cough. He died in the year 1855 at the residence of Lemuel Eby (his nephew), in Bridgeport, Ontario, and is buried in the old Eby Burying Ground, Berlin.

Jonas Eby^4.

Jonas Eby$_4$, third son of John Eby^3, was married, according to reports, to — Hershey, Whether they had a family is not known. They resided in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

Rebecca Eby^4 (Bricker) and her Descendants.

Rebecca Eby$_4$, the eldest daughter of John Eby^3, was married to Samuel Bricker, born July 25, 1776, died November 15, 1868, aged 92 years, 3 months and 29 days. In the beginning of the present century they moved from Pennsylvania to near Freeport, Ontario, Canada. If not mistaken, their old home is now in possession of Mr. Richard Gehl.—They had a family of eight children, as follows:

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.
MARY$_5$	Nov. 3, 1806		Abraham Toman.
PETER$_5$	May 16, 1808		Susannah Erb.
SAMUEL$_5$	May 30, 1810		Catharine Overult.

Samuel ("Saddler Sam") Eby[4] and his Descendants.

Samuel ("Saddler Sam") Eby[4], the youngest son of John Eby[3], was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, June 27, 1790. He was one of the original settlers of Waterloo County, Ontario, Canada. In the year 1817 he, with other relatives and friends from his native State, settled in Berlin, near the present site of the Waterloo County Court House. He soon afterwards made his home on a farm near Preston, Ontario, where he remained until 1844, when he returned to Berlin and worked at his trade of harness-making. In 1850 he moved to Colborne, Huron County, Ontario, where he occupied a farm until 1856, and then moved to Conestogo, Ontario, where his wife died in 1862. By this time he was getting along in years, and soon after went to live with his eldest son, Jonas, in Elora, Ontario, where he remained until 1865, when he went to live with his third son, John, at Wyandot, Ontario. Here he remained until the time of his death, which occurred August 8, 1878. He attained to the mature age of 88 years. On July 27, 1813, he married Elizabeth Brigel, in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. They had a family of eight children, as follows:

4. Charles S. Eby[6], D.D., fourth son of Jonas Eby[5], married Nellie Keppel in June, 1871. They have five children, namely: Nellie (born 1876), Charles Albert (born 1879), Mary (born 1881), Winnie (born 1883), Harold (born 1889.

Following is a biographical sketch of the above named Dr. Eby, who is a missionary of the Canada Methodist Church, at Tokio, Japan:—

Charles S. Eby, fourth son of the late Jonas Eby, was born at Goderich, Ontario, November 3, 1845. The early years of his boyhood were spent in Elora, where his parents moved before he had completed his second year. When only eleven years of age he was converted to God, while attending a camp meeting on the old Peel circuit. He soon after joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and has always remained loyal and true to God and the church of his choice. When about fifteen years old, he was apprenticed to a saddle and harness maker in Guelph, but his heart was not in the work: he took more interest in his Latin grammar, which he kept tacked before him while at work at the bench. He remained there nearly two years; then thought there was no use spending any more time in a harness-maker's shop, as the ambition of his life was to study for the ministry, to which he felt called. He taught school for some time, a few miles from Guelph, and at the age of eighteen began to preach. The late Rev. Dr. Carroll, then Chairman of the Guelph District, recommended him to the Conference, and he spent one year (the first year of his probation), on the Peel circuit. In the fall of 1865 he went to Victoria University, Cobourg, with the determination to go through a College course, and to work his own way along. Something seemed to draw him to the German work, and when he had been two years at Cobourg, Providence opened up a way for him to go to Germany to perfect himself in the German language. He attended the Theological University at Halle, and spent two years and a-half there and in other parts of Europe. He made good use of the time in preparing himself for the mission work that lay before him. Before leaving Europe he preached in both German and French. In the latter part of 1870 he returned to Canada, much stronger in body and enjoying far better health than ever before. He again went to Cobourg to continue his studies, and the following May graduated with honors, and received the degree of B. A. In June he was ordained and received into full connection by the Conference. The same month he was married to Miss Nellie Keppel, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and settled down at Preston, Ontario, as superintendent of the German Mission in connection with the Methodist Church. He spent five years in the German work,—three at Preston and two at Hamilton, Ontario. Then came a change. God had other work for him, and a great future lay before him in a far distant land. Just at this time (in 1876), a call came for two more men for the foreign mission—Japan. Consecrated, whole-hearted men were wanted. Bro. Eby was one of the men the Conference chose for that important work. Always ready to obey the Saviour's command, and willing to go anywhere for Christ, he at once responded to the call. Preparations for the journey were immediately made, and in August of the same year he bade a long good-bye to friends, home and native land, and with his wife and two little children sailed for the distant Islands of Japan. He threw his whole soul into his new work. It was not easy work. The Japanese language had to be learned, and many other difficulties overcome. His powers for learning languages are wonderful, and it was not long before he had mastered the Japanese, and could preach in that language as freely as in English. For several years he remained, doing a noble work for God; then his health failed, and he was obliged to leave for a time and return to Canada. Early in the spring of 1885 he left Japan, and did not return for nearly two years. He and his family were welcomed by their many friends in Canada and the United States. His visit, and the change, were of great benefit to him and, through the blessing of God, he soon regained his health. During his stay here the degree of D. D. was bestowed upon him by the Victoria University, Cobourg. He lectured and gave missionary addresses from one end of the Dominion to the other, and in some places in the United States, He was ready when the time came for him to return to Japan, and was anxious to get once more at the work he loved so well. Since his return his heart has been more than ever in the work. God is crowning his labors with success, and he is looking forward to a long term of usefulness in the Empire of Japan. He is a minister of superior ability, with strong mental powers and decided convictions. He is master of his subject, and he pours out his heart with fervent eloquence, holding his audience with intense and absorbing interest. His rhetorical ability and literary skill will obtain him a hearing anywhere. He possesses a master mind, and his hearers feel that more than an ordinary man is addressing them. He has chosen a field where his superior powers will find ample scope in delivering and enforcing that gospel which has done so much for himself.

3. James Edward Drehmer, born September 15, 1866.

(Here end the descendants of John Eby[3].)

The Descendants of Andrew Eby[3].

We now come to Andrew Eby[3], the fourth son of Christian Eby[2] (son of Theodorus Eby[1]) and his wife Elizabeth Mayer. (See page 5.) He was born on the 11th day of January, 1747. It could not be ascertained to whom he was married nor when he died. He had a family of several children, of whom some died when quite young. Andrew[3] was a deacon in the Mennonite Church, which position he filled with credit and honor to himself and the Church for many years.

John Eby[4] and his Descendants.

John Eby[4], son of Andrew Eby[3], was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, where he was married when about twenty-four years of age. Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Eby moved to the West, settling in Perry County, Ohio, about the year 1800. They were members of the Mennonite Church, but after his decease, which was about the year 1830, the widow joined the United Brethren Church. They were blessed with a family of twelve children. The dates of birth and death, and to whom married, were not given to the writer. Their names were as follows: Andrew^5, Magdalena^5, Barbara^5, John^5, Eve^5, Joseph^5, Catharine^4, Peter^5, David^5, Abraham^5, Jacob^5 and Elizabeth^5. Eight of the family belonged to the United Brethren Church. All except two lived and died in Perry County, Ohio. David^5 lives in Rocknerville, Humboldt County, California, and Jacob^5 lives in Logan, Hocking County, Ohio. Five of these sons, namely, Andrew^5, John^5, Peter^5, David^5 and Abraham^5, were ministers of the Gospel. All proved to be wonderfully gifted with the power of the Holy Spirit, and were successful laborers in the Lord's vineyard.

Jacob Eby and Family.

Jacob Eby^5, the youngest son of John Eby^4, was born on the 29th of October, 1819. He has had a family of several children, three of whom are still living. The eldest one, Samuel^6. lives in Missouri, and follows farming. Henry^6, the youngest, resides in Illinois, and is a minister of the Gospel in the United Brethren Church. Up to the present he has proved himself to be a very successful laborer in the Lord's service. May the Lord bless his efforts in winning souls for His kingdom.

The Descendants of Peter Eby^2.

Peter Eby^2, the eldest son of Theodorus Eby^1 (see page 5), had three sons, namely: John^3, Jacob^3 and Christian^3.

John Eby^3 and his Descendants.

John Eby^3, the eldest son of Peter Eby^2 and grand-son of Theodorus Eby^1, was married to Mary Gerber.* They resided somewhere near Lititz, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He died while yet comparatively young, leaving a family of five children. Whether they all arrived at the age of twenty-one years is doubtful, but as far as the writer could ascertain, there were but two sons, who are mentioned in Bishop Benjamin Eby's Notes, namely, David^4, who came to Canada in 1807, and Peter^4, who remained in Pennsylvania. Whether Peter had any heirs or descendants was not ascertained by the writer. Of David we have a better history, which is as follows:

David Eby^4 and his Descendants.

David Eby^4 came to Canada in 1807 with Benjamin Eby, Daniel Eby, Samuel Eby (deacon), Peter Erb and others. He cleared some eight or ten acres of forest for old Peter Erb, who took up land a little to the north of Bridgeport, Waterloo County, Ontario. It is said that he was the happiest and merriest of all those who came to the new settlement. Even while at his work he was either singing or whistling most of the time. He and Bishop Benjamin Eby were great friends; even in their boyhood days they were very intimate with each other. The shop in which these two friends held their first consultation upon the advisability of moving to Canada, and in which they made their final arrangement to move to such a (then) distant home, is still standing. It is now used as a cellar, and owned and occupied by a son of Henry E. Brubacher.—David Eby[4], born February 23, 1785, died April 1, 1860, aged 75 years, 1 month and 8 days, was married May 8, 1810, to Elizabeth Bechtel, who was born March 5, 1787, and died January 15, 1844, aged 56 years, 10 months and 10 days. They resided on their farm two miles west of the Town of Waterloo, Ontario, where they raised a family of eleven children, five sons and six daughters, namely:

Peter Eby[2] and Descendants not given from page 100 to 113.

Since printing the record of Peter Eby[2]'s family (see page 100) it has been ascertained that he had yet another son named Peter Eby[3]. Also[2] the descendants of Christian Eby[3], brother of Peter Eby[3], son of Peter Eby and grandson of Theodorus Eby[1] have been obtained.

Peter Eby[3] and his Descendants.

Peter Eby[3], the eldest son of Peter Eby[2], was born about the year 1720. He was married to Annie Roland and resided in Upper Leacock Township Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. They had a family of eight children, namely, Peter[4], Samuel[4], Henry[4], John[4], David[4], Christian[4], Andrew[4], and, Ann[4], who was married to Abraham Wenger. The two eldest sons of Peter Eby[3], namely Peter[4] and Samuel[4], served in the revolutionary war, under Captain Roland,* and were present in the American army when the British took New York City in 1776. After the close of the war, Samuel[4] married and afterward settled in Leacock Township, not far from the place of his birth, and followed farming. He left a family of four children, namely, Samuel[5], Jonas[5], Barbara[5] and Elizabeth[5]. Barbara Eby[5] was married to William Good. Her sister Elizabeth Eby[5] was married to John Good; while their brother Jonas Eby[5] was married to ——— Line. Of Samuel Eby[5] we have no information. Jonas Eby[5] who was married to a Line had a family of three children, namely, Samuel Eby[6] of Elizabethtown, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He is a Justice of the Peace, Surveyor and Banker. Isaac L. Eby[6], brother to Samuel Eby[6], and Lovina Eby[6] their sister, is married to Martin Leber.*

Christian Eby[3] and his Descendants.

Christian Eby[3], youngest son of Peter Eby[2] and grandson of Theodorus Eby[1], was born in 1730. It is not known to whom he was married, but that he had a family of five children, three sons and two daughters, is certain. Their names were, John[4], Andrew[4], Christian[4], Magdalena[4] and Mary[4].* He resided near Roland's Mill, his grandfather Theodorus Eby[1]'s place.

*Alex. Harris' History of Lancaster County.

Christian Eby[4] and his Descendants.

Christian Eby[4], third son of Christian Eby[3], resided on a farm near Neffsville, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He died near Brickerville, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in 1867. He was highly esteemed by all for the noble character he bore. His family consisted of nine children as follows:

Children.	Residence.	To Whom Married.
JOHN[5]	Cumberland County, Pennsylvania
ELIZABETH[5]		Abram Metzler.
CHRISTIAN[5]	Conestogo Centre, Pennsylvania
MARY[5]		Erhard Lutz.
ANNA[5]	Lancaster City, Pennsylvania	Elias Barr.
BENJAMIN[5]	Ohio
LYDIA[5]		E. Pfautz.
EPHRAIM O[5]	Brickerville, Pennsylvania
CATHERINE[5]		Daniel Flory.

Of the rest of the family no information was received.

PETER EBY[2]

AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

Peter Eby[2], mentioned on page 4, nephew of Theodorus Eby , was born in Switzerland, about the year 1685. He was married to a Caroline Sauer, but she died young, leaving one son, Peter Eby[3], the only child of Peter Eby[2]. When and where Peter Eby[2] died is not known, but it is supposed with his son.

Peter Eby[3] and his Descendants.

Peter Eby[3], son of Peter Eby[2], born in 1721, married to Catherine Doner, widow of Daniel Brubacher. Peter Eby[3] resided on Hammer Creek, Elizabeth Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. They had a family of three children as follows: namely,

Children.	Born.	Died.	To Whom Married.
JOSEPH[4]	February 17, 1753	....	Elizabeth Brechbill.
PETER[4]	March 10, 1756..	December 9, 1838	Never married.
SUSANNAH[4].....	June 15, 1759....	.....	Ahraham Long.

I.—JOSEPH EBY[4] AND FAMILY.

Joseph Eby[4] and his wife Elizabeth Brechbill, resided in Elizabeth Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and had a family of five children as follows :

1. Abraham Eby[5], married to Susan Brubacher, resided in East Calico, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, had a family of eight children.

2. Peter Eby[5], married to Mary Eby, resided in Manheim, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, had two sons.

3. John Eby[5], married to Magdalena Hershey, resided in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, had one son residing in Iowa.

4. Jonas Eby[5], married to Mary Wolf, resided in Schoeneck, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, had one daughter, married to H. B. Erb.

5. Catherine Eby[5], married to Jacob Eberly, heirs and residence unknown.

No information was given the writer of the grandchildren of Joseph Eby[4].

II.—PETER EBY[4].

Peter Eby[4] the second son of Peter Eby[3] and Catherine Doner, was born on the 10th day of March 1756 and Died on the 9th day of December 1838, aged 70 years, 8 months and 29 days. Peter Eby[4] lived the life of a hermit. He had a pleasant little home in Elizabeth Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. In his Will made some time before his death, he directed all his estate and property of which he possessed a considerable amount, to be distributed in flour among the deserving poor, irrespective of age, sex, nation, color, or religion. This was faithfully carried out by his executors such distributions being made gradually, and lasting three or four years. Two waggon loads were sent each year to Lancaster City, and there distributed from the hardware store of George Lewis Mayar.* He also wrote and published a small religious work. Most copies of which he sold before his death, those left at his death were distributed among his friends and relatives.

III.—Susannah Eby[4] and Family.

Susannah Eby[4], the only daughter of Peter Eby[3], was born on the 15th day of June, 1759. She was married to Abraham Long, resided in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania. Of her family no information could be obtained.

The genealogy of the following Ebys has not been handed to the writer. No doubt they are all descendants of Theodorus Eby[1] or his nephew Peter Eby[2] on page 4 whose descendants are given from pages 5 to 133.

There was an Ephraim Eby, a highly esteemed man, who resided near Elizabethtown, Lancaster County Pennsylvania, and had a family of seven children. The names of some of the children were as follows:

Jacob Eby of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, is a Merchant and Banker.

Ephraim Eby, junior, resides in the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He follows the mercantile life.

Mrs. Grove of Columbia, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Weaver of Lancaster City, Pennsylvania, are daughters of Ephraim Eby and sisters to Jacob Eby and Ephraim Eby, junior.

The youngest son of Ephraim Eby named Joel Eby, resides in the state of Ohio. The other children of Ephraim Eby died in infancy.

There was also an Isaac Eby of Leacock Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, father of Major Christian Eby who at one time was owner of Roland's Mills where Theodorus Eby[1] settled, and adjoining which some of his descendants still reside.

*Alex. Harris' History o aster County.

JACOB S. EBY who resides on a farm, in Upper Leacock Township, that has been in the name of the Eby family for over a century, is the son of Jacob Eby, a grandson of DANIEL EBY.

MOSES and JOEL EBY are supposed to be of the same branch as Jacob S. Eby although they write their name "Eaby."

There was also a CHRISTIAN EBY of Rapho Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, now deceased, who followed milling and farming. He left a family of well doing children, among whom are JACOB EBY and GEORGE EBY.

The only descendants of old SAMUEL EBY, who resided two miles south of Manheim, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, are, a daughter married to Henry Kurtz of Mount Joy, Pennsylvania, and another married to a Mr. Eberly of Clay Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

Here ends the history of the descendants of Theodorus Eby$_1$ and his nephew Peter Eby^2. We now shall take up the history of Nicholas Eby^5 and his descendants, (see page 4).

NICHOLAS EBY^5

AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

We now come to Nicholas Eby^5 who came to America in 1853. His great-grandfather Andrew Eby^2 was a descendant af the same Eby family, "The Vaudois," as was Theodorus Eby^1 who came to America in 1715. This Andrew Eby^2 was a first cousin to the sons of Theodorus Eby^1, viz., Peter^2, Hannes^2, Jacob^2, Christian^2 and David^2, and also first cousin to Peter Eby^2 who came to America in 1720, (see pages 4 and 5). Dates of Andrew Eby^2's birth and death are not known. So much is known that he was born in Bern, Switzerland, and that he had a son named Christian^3, who moved to Alsace, Germany, where he (Christian^3) raised a family. One of his sons was named Christian Eby^4. He was born in Volksburg, a peasant village in Alsace, thirty miles from Strassburg a famous city on the river Rhine. This Christian Eby^4 had three brothers, namely, Nicholas Eby^4, Adam Eby^4 and John Eby^4. These four brothers were married to four sisters whose maiden name was Klein.

I.—JOHN EBY[6].

John Eby[6], the eldest of Nicholas Eby[5]'s sons, is unmarried and is now about 37 years of age. He commenced to teach school when 17 years old. He has taught 24 terms in four different schools. The last four terms he taught in Williams County, Ohio. In 1876, he (John Eby[6]) took a trip across the Atlantic and travelled in England, Ireland, France Holland, Denmark, Germany and parts of Switzerland. He is also author of a book "A mild humorous Satire" on the manners, customs and ways of the people of a small country town. Title, "Folks and People," "or three years in Millbrook by Betsey Brown." At present he resides in Rheinlander, Wisconsin.

II.—Nicholas Eby[6] and Family.

Nicholas Eby[6], age about 30 years, is married to Cora Hyath. They had but one child, named Mabel Eby[7]. He is a Mason by trade and resides in Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

III.—Christohper Eby[6] and Family.

Christopher Eby[6] is about 29 years of age. He has been agent on the Lake shore R. R. for some time, also contractor for buildings, but of late years he has been treasurer for Oneida County, Wisconsin. He is married to Mattie Tittemore, and has had a family of four children namely; Jennie Eby[7], John Eby[7], Vivian Eby[7] and George Eby[7] who died in the early part of October 1889. Christopher Eby[6] resides in Rheinlander, Wisconsin.

IV.—Mary Eby[6] and Family.

Mary Eby[6] is married to Peter Clay from Ohio. They reside in La Otte, Noble County, Indiana. They have one son named Eby Clay[7].

V.—George Eby[6].

George Eby[6] aged about 25 years, is unmarried and is at home with his parents, managing the farm.

VI.—Phill Eby[6].

Phill Eby[6] aged about 23 years, is in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

TO THE READER:

The writer thinks it not out of place to say a few more words in conclusion. He is only too conscious of the many errors, mistakes and oversights that appear in the work just now completed. Much of which was written during hours when others were taking their rest.

That the errors and imperfections in the work are not greater than they are, the writer owes to the kindness of his many cousins who aided him with information in regard to the "Eby Family," also did they aid him with suggestions and corrections, and especially my dear cousins John F. Eby of Detroit, Michigan, Printer; Martin F. Eby of Port Elgin, Ontario, Chemist and Druggist; David B. Eby of Waterloo, Ontario, Farmer; Rev. Enoch Eby of Hutchinson, Kansas; Rev. David F. Eby of Mount Vernon, Illinois; Samuel M. Eby of Centreview, Missouri, Farmer; Simon P. Eby of Lancaster City, Pennsylvania, Barrrister etc.; Jacob Eby of Logan, Ohio, Gentleman; John Eby of Rheinlander, Wisconsin, Teacher; George Eby of Mill Creek, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, Merchant; and the old manuscripts of the late Bishop Benjamin Eby have been the greatest of service to the writer.
